MacKinnon, 1985-01-01 This anthology demonstrates the richness and diversity of the American intellectual heritage. In it we see how Jonathan Edwards grapples with the problem of how to reconcile freedom and responsibility with Calvinist religious beliefs, how Franklin and Jefferson exemplified American enlightenment thought and how the Transcendentalists Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau formulated their particular romantic idealist beliefs. A second and significant portion of the anthology is devoted to Pragmatism. Substantive excerpts from Peirce, James and Dewey as well as Royce are collected here. A third part is devoted to other Twentieth Century American philosophies. No other collection of writings in this field includes the breadth of coverage that this one does. Among the chapters in this third part of the book are those on early Process Philosophy, Phenomenology, Positivism and Language Philosophies. Selections from such philosophers as Whitehead, Weiss, Buchler, Gurwitsch, Sellars, Quine, Davidson and Rawls along with many others are included in this part. A final chapter is devoted to twentieth century American Moral Philosophy. The book is specifically designed to be used as a text for courses in American philosophy. A substantive introduction that emphasizes the historical setting as well as major interests and ideas of the philosophers accompanies each chapter. Extensive bibliographies and study guide questions follow each chapter. The selections include more than any one course will cover but in their completeness also allow individual teachers and readers to select what they want. Ethics in the News Update Barbara MacKinnon, 2011 Our Boston, 1925 New Age,

Neopagan, and New Religious Movements Hugh B. Urban, 2015-09-15 New Age Neopagan and New Religious Movements is a comprehensive and user friendly book devoted to the study of alternative spiritual currents in modern America. The book covers a wide range of new religions from the mid nineteenth century to the present including the Native American Church, Mormonism, Spiritualism, Scientology, the Nation of Islam, Rastafari, ISKCON, Wicca, the Church of Satan, Peoples Temple, Branch Davidians and the Raëlians. Each chapter focuses on one key issue or debate that raises larger issues in the study of religion and American culture more broadly such as the legality of peyote in the Native American Church, the role of women and feminism in Wicca the role of hip hop and reggae music in the spread of the Nation of Islam and Rastafari and the debate over human cloning in the Raelian movement The book also addresses key theoretical and methodological problems in the study of new religions Why has there been such a tremendous proliferation of new spiritual forms in the past 150 years even amid our increasingly rational scientific technological and secular society Why has the United States become the heartland for the explosion of new religious movements How do we deal with complex legal debates such as the use of peyote by the Native American Church the use of marijuana by Rastafarians or the practice of plural marriage by some Mormon communities And how do we navigate issues of religious freedom and privacy in a new age of religious violence terrorism and government surveillance Provided by publisher Parasites, People, and Places Gerald W. Esch, 2004-02-12 A fascinating collection of essays on field parasitology describing scientists the organisms they work on and the places where they occur
