Adam Smith's System

Andreas Ortmann, Benoît Walraevens, 2022-09-19 Inspired by his lectures on rhetoric and by game theory this book provides a new interpretation of Adam Smith's system of thought It highlights its coherence through the identification of three reasoning routines and a meta reasoning routine throughout his work on languages rhetoric moral sentiments self command and the nature and causes of the wealth of nations The identification of these reasoning routines allows the authors to uncover a hitherto poorly understood deep structure of Smith's work and to explain its main characteristics How these routines emerged in Smith's early research on the principles of the human mind is also traced This book sheds new light on Adam Smith and his work highlighting his sophisticated understanding of strategic interaction in all things rhetorical moral and economic It will be relevant to students and researchers interested in the history of ideas the history of economic thought game theory Enlightenment studies and rhetoric are approaching Smith's work for the first time Human Nature, Mind and the Self in Adam Smith's Moral Philosophy Riccardo Bonfiglioli, 2024-04-24 This book investigates the problematisation in Adam Smith's moral philosophy of a classical question: what makes us human beings from a moral standpoint. To do this, Riccardo Bonfiglioli explores the relationship between the concepts of human nature, mind and the self in order to reconstruct Smith's theory of subjectivity. After providing a systematic reconstruction of Adam Smith's conceptions of human nature, mind and the self, exploring some aspects of Smith's philosophy: nature, philosophy of history, sympathy and imagination and their empirical expressions: education, conduct and character, Bonfiglioli argues that in Adam Smith's work the meaning of moral human beings would depend on the human being's effort to live in harmony with oneself and the others. According to Bonfiglioli, in Smith's moral theory this harmony with oneself and the others would be achieved in relation to a certain kind of awareness that can be possible when human beings try to judge the conduct and try to act according to the impartial spectator. Specifically, this impartial spectator is reinterpreted by the author in the light of the concept of immediacy.
