Allotment Reprisal Jethro Roy:

Reprisal! Jethro Le'roy, 2015-12-06 The quintessential English Allotment should be a place of peace and harmony A place where men and women can forget their problems potter and plant And on The Victory Allotments this has been the case For two years there has been no trouble But that is all about to change Former tenant Albert Collins has been on the run in Europe Wanted by both the UK police and Interpol for a brutal murder he is now back in the UK with one thing on his mind Revenge against the five people he holds responsible for his situation And he is determined to get his pound of flesh The five who call themselves The Allotmenters are equally determined to stop him The Victory Allotments once again erupt into violence arson mayhem and murder Who will emerge the victor And can the idyllic life on the allotments ever be the same again Once again The Allotmenters must fight for the right to retain all they hold dear But this time there is a cost And it is paid in blood
