

There is a system for handling the law school essay exam well. It's the single most important key to law school success. Its creator is Wentworth Miller, founder of "LEEWS."

— PLANET LAW SCHOOL

THE LEGAL ESSAY EXAM WRITING PRIMER

(Sixth Edition)

Featuring:

- A disciplined, unique, three-step approach to breaking any law essay "hypothetical" into manageable components that reveal issues — all of them — law school or bar;
- The best instruction ever developed on how to perform the balanced, nitpicking ("lawyerlike") analysis that impresses professors and earns A's;
- A unique format for presenting concise, effective analysis (roughly one paragraph per issue), that makes a "poor writer" good enough, a "good writer" better;
- A system of day-to-day, week-by-week condensed briefing / course outlining for effectively implementing the issue-identification system and exam writing approach;
- The ABC's of effective study strategy and environmental / emotional / physical preparation for any bar exam;
- Eight practice "hypotheticals" with model planning and responses;
- And much more — a proven effective, comprehensive science of law exam writing and preparation that goes far beyond "IRAC" and standard advice.
