And Extractive Imperialism Americas Capitalisms Frontier:

Extractive Imperialism in the Americas James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, 2014-07-24 Recent changes in the global economy which include a growing demand for energy and natural resources such as industrial minerals and agro food products have brought about a massive devastating pillage of resources in the developing world by multinational corporations as well as states with energy and food security concerns and concerns about a system global capitalism in the throes of a global crisis These developments have also brought about a major change in the form taken by imperialism actions taken by the state to advance the interests of the dominant capitalist class This book explores the changing face of US imperialism in the regional context of the Americas a major stage in the unfolding drama of a system in crisis

Neoextractivism and Capitalist Development Dennis C. Canterbury, 2018-05-15 The large scale extraction of natural resources for sale in capitalist markets is not a new phenomenon but in recent years global demand for resources has increased leading to greater attention to the role of resource extraction in the development of the exporting countries The term neoextractivism was coined to refer to the complex of state private sector policies intended to utilize the income from natural resources sales for development objectives and for improving the lives of a country s citizens However this book argues that neoextractivism is merely another conduit for capitalist development reinforcing the position of elites with few benefits for working people With particular reference to the role of neoextractivism within Latin America and the Caribbean using Guyana as a case study the book aims to provide readers with the tools they need to critically analyze neoextractivism as a development model identifying alternative paths for improving the human condition This book will be of interest to academics and students in the fields of international development political economy sociology and globalization as well as to policymakers and political activists engaged in social movements in the natural resources sector

Peasants, Capitalism, and Imperialism in an Age of Politico-Ecological Crisis Mark Tilzey, Fraser Sugden, 2023-09-27 This book utilises a new theoretical approach to understand the dynamics of the peasantry and peasant resistance in relation to capitalism state class and imperialism in the global South In this companion volume to Peasants Capitalism and the Work of Eric R Wolf the authors further develop their thinking on agrarian transitions to capitalism the development of imperialism and the place of the peasantry in these dynamics with special reference to the global South in an era of politico ecological crisis Focusing on the political role of the peasantry in contested transitions to capitalism and to modes of production outside of and beyond capitalism the book contends that an understanding of these dynamics requires an analysis of class struggle and of the resources material and discursive that different classes can bring to bear on this struggle The book focuses on the rise of capitalism in the global South within the context of imperial subordination to the global North and the place of the peasantry in shaping and resisting these dynamics The book presents case studies of contested transitions to agrarian capitalism in Bolivia Ecuador Guatemala Mexico Peru and South Asia It also examines the case of transition to a post capitalist mode of production in Cuba The book concludes with an assessment of the nature of capitalism and imperialism within the context of the contemporary politico ecological crisis and the potential role of the peasantry as agent of emancipatory change towards social and environmental sustainability This book will be of great interest to students and researchers in the areas of peasant studies rural politics agrarian studies development and political ecology Agrarian Extractivism in Latin America Ben M. McKay,Alberto Alonso-Fradejas,Arturo Ezquerro-Cañete,2021-05-30 Amid the growing calls for a turn towards sustainable agriculture this book puts forth and discusses the concept of agrarian extractivism to help us identify and expose the predatory extractivist features of dominant agricultural development models The concept goes beyond the more apparent features of monocultures and raw material exports to examine the inherent logic and underlying workings of a model based on the appropriation of an ever growing range of commodified and non commodified human and non human nature in an extractivist fashion Such a process erodes the autonomy of resourcedependent working people dispossesses the rural poor exhausts and expropriates nature and concentrates value in a few hands as a result of the unquenchable drive for profit by big business In many instances such extractivist dynamics are subsidized and or directly supported by the state while also dependent on the unpaid productive and reproductive labour of women children and elders exacerbating unequal class gender and generational relations Rather than a one size fits all definition of agrarian extractivism this collection points to the diversity of extractivist features of corporate led external input dependent plantation agriculture across distinct socio ecological formations in Latin America This timely challenge to the destructive dominant models of agricultural development will interest scholars activists researchers and students from across the fields of critical development studies rural studies environmental and sustainability studies and Latin American studies among others Converging Social Justice Issues and Movements Tsegaye Moreda,Saturnino M. Borrás Jr.,Alberto Alonso-Fradejas,Zoe W. Brent,2020-05-21 Converging Social Justice Issues and Movements argues that multiple contemporary converging crises have significantly altered the context for and object of political contestations around agrarian climate environmental and food justice issues This shift affects alliances collaboration and conflict among and between state and social forces as well as within and between social movements The actual implications and mechanisms by which these changes are happening are to a large extent empirical questions that need careful investigation The majority of the discussions in this volume are dedicated to the issue of responses to the crises both by capitalist forces and those adversely affected by the crises and the implications of these for academic research and political activist work Interdisciplinary in nature Converging Social Justice Issues and Movements will be of great use to scholars of agrarian politics as well as climate and environmental justice studies The chapters were originally published as a special issue in Third World Quarterly Digital Culture & Society (DCS) Ramón Reichert,Mathias Fuchs,Pablo Abend,Annika Richterich,Karin Wenz,2018-08-07 Digital Culture Society is a refereed international journal fostering discussion about the ways in which digital technologies platforms and applications reconfigure daily lives and practices It offers a forum for inquiries into digital media theory methodologies and socio technological developments This issue shows The meaning of AI has undergone drastic changes during the last 60 years of AI discourse s What we talk about when saying AI is not what it meant in 1958 when John McCarthy Marvin Minsky and their colleagues started using the term Biological information processing is now firmly embedded in commercial applications like the intelligent personal Google Assistant Facebook s facial recognition algorithm Deep Face Amazon s device Alexa or Apple s software feature Siri to mention just a few

The Rise of Green Extractivism Natacha Bruna,2023-03-14 The Rise of Green Extractivism tackles the understudied interconnections between extractivism and climate smart policies and their implications for rural livelihoods both theoretically and empirically This new variation of extractivism arises as an innovative way in which capitalist production and accumulation unfolds and constitutes a convenient analytical tool in today s focus on reducing or compensating for emissions The book consolidates extractivism as a theoretical framework that fully challenges contemporary capitalism s dynamics particularly in the current global environmental crisis It explores new dynamics of accumulation resource grabbing and legitimization strategies These are approached as mechanisms of appropriation of resources that produce social economic and ecological implications to be considered in the current agrarian question debates By analysing the implementation and outcomes of green policies the author shows that new strategies of capital accumulation arise through the creation of new commodities markets vehicles of accumulation and ways of legitimising capital accumulation A new and greener frontier of accumulation is constituted These emerging processes of commodification bring along new waves of expropriation that further cut into the necessary consumption of rural populations Insights from empirical cases explored in this book show how this new wave of green investments and projects directly linked to climate change concerns are further expropriating livelihoods and fuelling capital accumulation in the name of the fight against climate change This book will be of great interest to students scholars and researchers of political economy globalisation development studies economics political ecology agrarian studies and environmental studies It will also inform and provide policymakers with evidence based insights into their decision making process when designing and implementing climate change mitigation and adaptation policies especially in developing countries

Confronting Desire Ilan Kapoor,2020-09-15 By applying psychoanalytic perspectives to key themes concepts and practices underlying the development enterprise Confronting Desire offers a new way of analyzing the problems challenges and potentialities of international development Ilan Kapoor makes a compelling case for examining development s unconscious desires and in the process inaugurates a new field of study psychoanalytic development studies Drawing from the work of Jacques Lacan and Slavoj i ek as well as from psychoanalytic postcolonial and feminist scholarship Kapoor analyzes how development s unconscious desires speak out most often in excessive and unpredictable ways that contradict the outwardly rational declarations of its practitioners He investigates development s many irrationalities from obsessions about growth and poverty to the perverse seductions of racism and over consumption By deploying key psychoanalytic concepts enjoyment fantasy antagonism fetishism envy drive perversion and hysteria Confronting Desire critically analyzes important issues in development growth poverty inequality participation consumption corruption gender race LGBTQ politics universality and revolution Confronting Desire offers prescriptions for applying psychoanalysis to development theory and practice and demonstrates how psychoanalysis can provide fertile ground for radical politics and the transformation of international development

Medea's Long Shadow in Postcolonial Contexts Ana Filipa Prata,Rodrigo Verano,2024-06-10 This interdisciplinary volume explores the ancient Greek myth of Medea and its global analogues found in other mythic and folk tales of deadly exiled women such as those of La Malinche and La Llorona examining the connections between these figures and their depictions from antiquity to modernity The book considers the figure of the foreign woman her exile fratricide and infanticide in its ancient Greek form and in global postcolonial receptions in a range of media including drama film novels and the visual arts The chapters illuminate the contradictions of considering the classical Medea as a central reference point for analysis of other female figures from peripheral territories while simultaneously acknowledging the insights that such comparisons can yield Emphasizing the ways in which Medea s seditious nature enables the establishment of an extensive and heterogeneous intertextual network with other mythic characters who represent a similarly disruptive role in their specific local historical and cultural contexts the book argues for a comparative analysis that is equally attentive to myths and folk tales from all regions These essays by scholars of classics comparative and world literatures and postcolonial studies represent a plurality of perspectives from different academic contexts in Africa Latin America North America and Europe and examine how different cultures have depicted women foreigners crime and abjection The foundations of Greek myth and subsequently of the classical tradition itself are interrogated from a postcolonial perspective In tracing the portrayals of Medea and other mythic women through the overlapping features of different female characters and plots and intertwining local cultural and literary materials with broader debates this volume challenges Eurocentric narratives of power and cultural domination and works to decentralize the discussion of Medea from the exclusive domain of classical studies Medea s Long Shadow in Postcolonial Contexts will be of interest to students and scholars working on Greek tragedy and its reception as well as to those studying postcolonial and global approaches to literature culture and gender studies

The Essential Guide to Critical Development Studies Henry Veltmeyer,Paul Bowles,2017-07-20 In recent years much mainstream development discourse has sought to co opt and neutralize key concepts relating to empowerment participation gender sustainability and inclusivity in order to serve a market driven neoliberal agenda Critical development studies now play a crucial role in combatting this by analyzing the systemic changes needed to transform the current world to one where economic and social justice and environmental integrity prevail The Essential Guide to Critical Development Studies takes as its starting point the multiple crises economic political social and environmental of the dominant current global capitalist system The chapters collectively document and analyze these crises and the need to find alternatives to the system s that generate them To do so analyses of class gender and empire are placed at the centre of discussion in contrast to markets liberalization and convergence which characterize mainstream development discourse Each contributor supplements their overview with a guide to the critical development studies literature on the topic thereby providing scholars and students not only with a precis of the key issues but also a signpost to further readings This is an important resource for academics researchers policymakers and professionals in the areas of development studies political science sociology economics gender studies history anthropology agrarian studies international relations and international political economy
