And Ethnic Conflicts Global Interventions Maureen:

Assaulted Personhood Craig C. Malbon, 2020-12-14 In 21st century America personhood is under daily assault sometimes with dire consequences. Scientist, ethicist and ordained minister Craig C. Malbon encourages the reader to consider such assaults on personhood endured by victims of abortion, ageism, Alzheimer's disease, drug addiction, mental and physical disabilities, gender, gender orientation, racism, sexual preference, identity politics, and our will to power over the other. In exploring personhood status, Malbon poses difficult questions for us: Is personhood assigned as all or nothing, or is it a sliding scale based upon criteria arbitrarily aimed at our vulnerabilities? Does the voiceless embryo and fetus have advocates who can speak to the moral question of abortion? Is the personhood of an economically insecure pregnant woman degraded to the point where lack of access to early termination of pregnancy results in coercive childbearing? Does being a member of the LGBTQI community target one for assaults on personhood to the extreme of being killed? In delving into the biology and psychology of assaults of self upon the other, Malbon sees powerful linkages of everyday assaults on personhood to darker, profound original sins that are foundational to the rise of the American empire: i.e. assaults on the indigenous Native Americans and assaults derivative to the institution of slavery upon Africans, African Americans and their descendants.

Hidden Geographies Marko Krevs, 2021-10-21 This book defines and discusses the term hidden geographies in two ways: systematically and by presenting a variety of examples of the research fields and topics concerning hidden geographies with the aim of stimulating further basic and applied research in this area. While the term is quite rarely used in the scientific literature, more often as a figure of speech than to illustrate or problematize its deeper meaning, we argue that hidden geographies are everywhere and many of them have significant impacts on other natural and social phenomena and processes, subsequently triggering changes, for example, in landscape, economy, culture, health, or quality of life. The introductory section of the book conceptualises hidden geographies and discusses cognitive geography, symbolization of space, and the hidden geographies in mystical literature. Case studies of hidden environmental geographies address soils, air pollution, coastal pollution, and the allocation of an astronomical tourism site. Revealing hidden historical and sacred places is illustrated through examples of the visualisation of the subterranean mining landscape, the analysis of the historical road network and trade border stones, and historical spatial boundaries and the monastic Carthusian space. Hidden urban geographies are discussed in terms of the urban development of an entire city, presenting the role of geography in rescuing architecture, revealing illegal urbanisation, and the quality of habitation in Roma neighbourhoods. Case studies of hidden population geographies shed light on the ageing of rural populations and the impact of spatial demographic disparities on fertility variations. Discussions of hidden social and economic geographies problematize recent social changes and conflicts in a country, present the implementation of the fourth industrial revolution, and borders as hidden obstacles in the organisation of public transport. Hidden geographies are explicitly linked to perceptions and explanations in case studies that address local responses to perceived marginalisation in a city the solo women travellers perceived risk and safety and hidden geographical contexts of visible post war landscapes The book brings such a diversity of views ideas and examples related to hidden geographies that can serve both to deepen their understanding and their various impacts on our lives and environment and to attract further cross disciplinary interest in considering hidden geographies in research and in our every day lives

Ethnic Conflicts and Global Interventions Maureen Wells,2015 Over the past three decades or more the international community has been forced to negotiate agreements aimed at solving global problems of greater complexity than ever before experienced In the first chapter the authors make an argument for a specific interpretation of the role of technology as a value laden and ideologically based means by which technology disseminates instrumental values and roles to nations governments organizations groups and individuals The second chapter focuses on spatial consequences of inter ethnic conflicts The third chapter examines research conducted in the Mazowe and Shamva districts on post independence conflict resolution using taboos as a model The commentary that follows describes some of the pragmatic mechanisms used amongst the international community to maximize consensus regarding standards of behavior in international affairs

The Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten,2008-03-31 This volume is comprised of over 2 300 annotations on a wide array of issues and topics germane to the subject of preventing the atrocities of genocide and managing these conflicts when they do arise Samuel Totten brings together in one comprehensive collection the research and findings in various fields such as political science sociology history and psychology to enable specialists in genocide studies peace studies and conflict resolution to benefit from the insights of a diverse range of scholars and foster an understanding of how the various components of genocide studies connect Among the topics included are key conventions international treaties and covenants genocide early warning signals and forecasting risk data bases sanctions peacekeeping missions conflict resolution the International Criminal Court realpolitik vis vis the issue of genocide prevention and intervention key non governmental agencies key governmental and UN bodies working on these important issues In addition to the annotations Totten frames the bibliography with a major essay that introduces the reader to the subject of prevention and intervention of genocide raising a host of critical issues regarding the strengths weaknesses and limitations of various approaches germane to issues of managing these conflicts

Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine Maureen Flaherty,2012-08-09 Twenty years post independence Ukraine remains split still floundering toward viable democracy Active participation in civic affairs required for democracy is unfamiliar for most Ukrainian citizens having internalized centuries of divisive oppression under a series of authoritarian regimes Democracy building and peace building require participant agency and voice rising out of oppression people often need support to speak about and transform their lived experiences Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine Using Narrative to Envision a Common Future by Maureen P Flaherty explores the roles women s shared narrative dialogue and group visioning play in the support of personal empowerment and bridge building between diverse communities

Despite participants initial beliefs that their regional counterparts shared little in common with them in the process of telling their personal life stories women were able to reflect upon their own values and strengths and with this rooting they were then able to reach out to others Rather than looking for differences participants sought ways to express a shared vision for an inclusive functional peace building future for themselves their families and Ukraine as a whole Peacebuilding with Women in Ukraine is a model for emancipatory social action and social change while the women s stories offer a window into the formative years and present day lives of eighteen women born and raised in the Soviet Union This study is a unique contribution to peace studies and to the history and building of a country that has most often had its history written for it

Confronting Ethnic Conflict Jennifer L. De Maio,2009-01-01 Confronting Ethnic Conflict critically assesses the role of external intervention in managing selected ethnic conflicts in Africa Given the pervasive threat of ethnic conflict and the growing incidence of internal wars spilling across borders understanding the impact of third party intervention on conflict prevention durable peaceful governance and amicable social relations becomes a critical exercise for any scholar of conflict management The purpose of this project is to determine whether intervention strategies undertaken by international regional and subregional actors can be devised or improved so as to maximize the likelihood of successful conflict management in the case of internal conflicts particularly ethnic conflicts As the literature and empirical evidence suggest third party intervention does not always prevent or end violence De Maio contends that external involvement is more likely to lead to effective conflict management if it works to alter the perceptions of the antagonists and ensures that the parties truly own the peace This book focuses on four cases in detail the Somali crisis from 1988 to 1992 the Burundi conflict from 1995 to 2003 the protracted conflict in Sudan from 1983 to 2005 and the 1994 KwaZulu Natal civil conflict in South Africa The cases were selected because their varying outcomes and different types of third party involvement suggest that insights can be gained into the conditions that determine successful third party intervention Toni Morrison's the Bluest Eye Harold Bloom,2007
