villain who definitely sees things from a darker angle than anything I've written before which was fun The characters whose scenes I most look forward to writing since they are very specific personalities and basically take over and make things easier for me are Cleo and Magnus They tend to surprise me while the other characters usually stick to the outline RM Let's talk body count You're very good at making me fall in love with your characters but you're also very good at killing them off when I least expect it How do you decide the who how when and why when it comes to killing off your characters MR I never knew how much I enjoyed killing characters until I started writing this series evil grin However I like to think those who get the axe sometimes um literally are necessary deaths It's all for a purpose to change another character in the face of their shock and grief to lead them down a path they never would have taken before and to spark a desire for revolution and vengeance in the hearts of those who might previously have been passive and peaceful Plus I always think when things seem a bit too ideal and characters are getting too comfortable it's a good time to get a few heads rolling to keep things interesting for readers and for me as the writer RM What's going on with Magnus He seems like kind of a jerk in Falling Kingdoms but I get the sense he's got a soft spot MR With a father like King Gaius whose nickname is the King of Blood it would be pretty hard for a prince to grow up as a nice dude with a sunny disposition Magnus really came alive on the page for me more so than any other character in the cast Initially he was supposed to be a jerk through and through but he's really more of a lost soul whose entire life has been devoted to attempting to gain his cruel and driven father's love and respect However Magnus has begun to learn that he might have a different set of morals than the king even though he knows following in Daddy's footsteps would make life easier for him This isn't to say that Magnus hasn't made and will make some rather dreadful decisions that will certainly cast a shadow over his future relationships and experiences RM Jonas has a lot of axes to grind by the end of book 1 What can we expect from him in Rebel Spring MR I think the main thing with Jonas is that beneath his thirst for vengeance focused on both the murderer of his brother Aron and King Gaius is that he really does mean well He cares about the people of downtrodden Paelsia and he's someone unlike his fellow countrymen who doesn't believe his future is ruled by uncontrollable fate In Rebel Spring Jonas has been thrust into the position of rebel leader which will be a challenge for him on many levels RM Okay ultimate personality test Are you a Cleo or a Lucia MR Both are princesses from vastly different kingdoms and upbringings Cleo is a girl who has favored parties and frivolity in the past while Lucia prefers learning and solitude Cleo is stubborn and sometimes reckless and Lucia is more measured and controlled but may be considered naive in many ways I wouldn't say I'm much like either princess really although I am blond like Cleo and I love books like Lucia RM Lastly can you talk a little bit about your writing process MR It would be next to impossible to undertake a large tapestry of a series like Falling Kingdoms if I didn't plan a lot of it ahead of time I work from a detailed outline and map out character goals and conflicts and relationship arcs but I'm still surprised by some of the things my characters say and do that can take me in a direction different from what was meticulously planned So far it's been a lot of fun to explore these unexpected paths
