How We Read Now Naomi S. Baron,2021-02-19 An engaging and authoritative guide to the impact of reading medium on learning from a foremost expert in the field We face constant choices about how we read Educators must select classroom materials College students weigh their textbook options Parents make decisions for their children The digital revolution has transformed reading and with the recent turn to remote learning onscreen reading may seem like the only viable option Yet selecting digital is often based on cost or convenience not on educational evidence Now more than ever it is imperative to understand how reading medium actually impacts learning and what strategies we need in order to read effectively in all formats In How We Read Now Naomi Baron draws on a wealth of knowledge and research to explain important differences in the way we concentrate understand and remember across multiple formats Mobilizing work from international scholarship along with findings from her own studies of reading practices Baron addresses key challenges from student complaints that print is boring to the hazards of digital reading for critical thinking Rather than arguing for one format over another she explains how we read and learn in different settings shedding new light on the current state of reading The book then crucially connects research insights to concrete applications offering practical approaches for maximizing learning with print digital text audio and video Since screens and audio are now entrenched and invaluable platforms for reading we need to rethink ways of helping readers at all stages use them more wisely How We Read Now shows us how to do that

COVID-19 and Schools Robert Maranto,David T. Marshall,2023-11-07 This book features contributions from leading experts who present peer reviewed research on how the unprecedented COVID 19 pandemic affected U S teachers students parents teaching practices enrolments and institutional innovations offering the first empirical findings exploring educational impacts likely to last for decades The COVID 19 pandemic presented the greatest crisis in the history of U S schooling with America s 50 states thousands of school systems and tens of thousands of private and charter schools responding in myriad ways This book brings together peer reviewed empirical research on how U S schools responded and on the educational and health impacts likely to persist for many years Contributors explore how the U S responses differed from those in other countries with slower reopening and both reopening and modes of instruction varying widely across states and school sectors Compared to European countries U S responses to reopening schools reflected political influences more than health or educational needs though this was less true in market based private and charter schools The pandemic was a catalyst for school choice movements across the U S Many parents reacted to school closings by exploring alternatives to traditional public schools including an important and likely permanent innovation small parent created or pod schools As the papers here detail long term student learning loss and health and socioemotional impacts of COVID 19 closings may well last for decades The volume concludes by exploring teacher experiences across different sectors following the pandemic COVID 19 and Schools will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of education education policy and leadership educational research research methods economics sociology and psychology The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of School Choice
