Calling This Place Home Joan M. Jensen, Professor Joan M Jensen, 2009-08 Swedish domestic worker Emina Johnson witnessed the great Peshtigo fire in 1871 Cherokee nurse Isabella Wolfe served the Lac du Flambeau reservation for decades the author's own grandmother Matilda Schopp was one of numerous immigrants who eked out a living on the Wisconsin cutover Calling This Place Home tells the stories of these and many other Native and settler women during Wisconsin's frontier era Noted historian Joan M Jensen spent more than a decade delving into the lives of a remarkable range of women who lived during the mid nineteenth through the early twentieth century's These individuals shared many struggles as economies evolved from logging to dairying to tourism Facing many challenges they cared for their sick educated their children maintained their cultural identity and preserved their own means of worship Entwining the experiences of Native and settler communities Jensen uses photographs and documents to examine and illustrate the recovered stories of representative but often overlooked women This comprehensive volume brings a deeper understanding of the state's history through the stories of individual women and the broader developments that shaped their lives Voices of Rondo

, 2017-07-04 In Voices of Rondo real life stories illuminate the northern urban Black experience during the first half of the twentieth century through the memories and reflections of residents of Saint Paul's historic Rondo community We glimpse the challenges of racism and poverty and share the victories of a community that educated its children to become strong to find personal pride and to become the next generation of leaders in Saint Paul and beyond Negroes and the Retail Job Ceiling Rober Oscar Blood, 1950 Industry in Minnesota United States. Anthropologies of Unemployment Jong Bum Kwon, Carrie M. Lane, 2016-09-09 Anthropologies of Unemployment offers accessible theoretically innovative and ethnographically rich examinations of unemployment in rural and urban regions across North and South America Europe Africa and Asia The diversity of case studies demonstrates that unemployment is a pressing global phenomenon that sheds light on the uneven consequences of free market ideologies and policies Economic social and cultural marginalization is common in the lives of the unemployed but their experience and interpretation are shaped by local and national cultural particularities In exploring those differences the contributors to this volume employ recent theoretical innovations and engage with some of the more salient topics in contemporary anthropology such as globalization migration youth cultures bureaucracy class gender and race Taken together the chapters reveal that there is something new about unemployment today It is not a temporary occurrence but a chronic condition In adjusting to persistent longstanding unemployment people and groups create new understandings of unemployment as well as of work and employment they improvise new forms of sociality morality and personhood Ethnographic studies such as those found in Anthropologies of Unemployment are crucial if we are to understand the broader forms meanings and significance of pervasive economic insecurity and discover the emergence of new social and cultural possibilities Domestic
