

The background of the cover is a vibrant purple. In the center, a horizontal wooden plank serves as a base for the title. Above the plank, the word "Whose" is written in a thick, yellow, hand-painted font. Below the plank, the words "Hands Are" are written in a brown, sans-serif font directly on the wood. Below that, the word "These?" is written in the same thick, yellow, hand-painted font as "Whose". Surrounding the central text and plank are several hands of different skin tones, each engaged in a different task: one uses a hammer, another uses pliers, one holds a nail, one uses a paintbrush, one holds a yellow tassel, one holds a white cone, and one wears a green glove. The overall theme is community and shared effort.
