Book Becoming Something Metaphysics Consciousness:

Phenomenology and the Problem of Time Michael R. Kelly, 2016-09-15 This book explores the problem of time and immanence for phenomenology in the work of Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Maurice Merleau Ponty and Jacques Derrida Detailed readings of immanence in light of the more familiar problems of time consciousness and temporality provide the framework for evaluating both Husserl's efforts to break free of modern philosophy's notions of immanence and the influence Heidegger's criticism of Husserl exercised over Merleau Ponty's and Derrida's alternatives to Husserl's phenomenology Ultimately exploring various notions of intentionality these in depth analyses of immanence and temporality suggest a new perspective on themes central to phenomenology's development as a movement and raise for debate the question of where phenomenology begins and ends

Philosophy as Criticism Ilham Dilman, 2011-03-17 In this his final book noted philosopher Ilham Dilman offers sharp critiques of his major contemporaries Ilham Dilman 1930 2003 was Professor Emeritus and Honorary Fellow Department of Philosophy University of Wales Swansea He was perhaps most well known for his contributions to moral philosophy and psychology and in particular on the works of Wittgenstein and Freud His publications include Wittgenstein's Copernican Revolution Palgrave 2002 Free Will A Historical and Philosophical Introduction Routledge 1999 Existential Critiques of Cartesianism Macmillan 1993 and Freud and Human Nature Blackwell 1983

Material Kenosis Marco Stango, 2025-05-27 What is left to say about death after we have affirmed that it is the great negation of life How shall we speak of our desire for life once we realize that this desire is crossed just as anything else in us by the negativity of death If love is self gift is the self negation of love analogous in any way to the negation of death And what about the fact that it seems obvious to us that death is nothing other than a problem to be dealt with technoscientifically Material Kenosis attempts to answer these questions by articulating a metaphysics of death based on the notion of material kenosis and through a close engagement with a broad variety of philosophical and theological positions

The Emergence of Consciousness Anthony Freeman, 2001 A collection of essays on the relation between the conscious mind and the body In this text philosopher Robert Van Gulick gives a clear overview and comparison on emergent and reductive approaches while others discuss more detailed aspects

Diagrammatic Immanence Rocco Gangle, 2016-08-18 A renewal of immanent metaphysics through diagrammatic methods and the tools of category theory Spinoza Peirce and Deleuze are in different ways philosophers of immanence Rocco Gangle addresses the methodological questions raised by a commitment to immanence in terms of how diagrams may be used both as tools and as objects of philosophical investigation He integrates insights from Spinozist metaphysics Peircean semiotics and Deleuze's philosophy of difference in conjunction with the formal operations of category theory Category theory reveals deep structural connections among logic topology and a variety of different areas of mathematics and it provides constructive and rigorous concepts for investigating how diagrams work Gangle introduces the methods of category theory from a philosophical and diagrammatic perspective allowing philosophers with little or no mathematical training to come to grips with this important field This coordination of immanent metaphysics diagrammatic method and category theoretical mathematics opens a new horizon for contemporary thought
