

The background of the entire image is an abstract, textured composition of thick, expressive brushstrokes. The color palette is dominated by various shades of red, from deep maroon and burgundy to bright, almost white highlights, as well as earthy browns and greys. The strokes are layered and overlapping, creating a sense of depth and movement. In the center, there is a semi-transparent red rounded rectangle that serves as a backdrop for the title and author information.

The Inner Quarters and Beyond, 2010-07-14 Only recently has the enormous literary output of women writers of the Ming and Qing periods 1368-1911 been rediscovered Through these valuable texts we apprehend in ways not possible earlier the complexity of women's experiences in the inner quarters and their varied responses to challenges facing state and society Writing in many genres women engaged with topics as varied as war travel illness love friendship female heroism and religion Drawing on a library of newly digitized resources this volume's eleven chapters describe analyze and theorize these materials They question previous assumptions about women's lives and abilities open up new critical space in Chinese literary history and offer new perspectives on China's culture and society This volume rewrites the history of Chinese women's literature by taking a truly interdisciplinary instead of merely multidisciplinary approach In so doing it ends up illuminating the centrality of writing women to the social political and intellectual lives of the Chinese empire from the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries Prof Dorothy Ko Barnard College Columbia University author of Cinderella's Sisters A Revisionist History of Footbinding California 2005

The Science of the Emotions Bhagavan Das, 1924 A Cultural History of the Emotions in the Modern and Post-Modern Age Jane W. Davidson, Joy Damousi, 2020-08-20 The 20th century with revolutionary and rapid developments in travel communications and computerised technologies offered new and seemingly limitless horizons which accompanied and amplified distinctive experiences of emotions The birth of psychology and psychiatry revealed the importance of emotional life and that individuals could have control over their behaviour Traditional religion was challenged and alternative forms of spiritualism emerged Creative and performing arts continued to shape understandings and experiences of emotions from realism to detachment holistic to fragmented notions of self and society The role of emotions in family life focused on how to deal with modern day freedom and anxiety In the public sphere people used emotion to oppress as well as liberate Countering threats to national security personal and cultural identity a range of political motivated activities emerged embracing peace humanitarian and environmental causes This volume surveys the means by which modern experience shaped how why and where emotions were expressed monitored and controlled
