Politics and the Fragmentation of Evangelicalism Kenneth J. Collins, 2012-08-02 Kenneth J Collins traces the establishment of the evangelical enterprise in American culture and its influences on the political and social values of the American landscape throughout the twentieth century as well as its fragmentation into competing ideological camps Power, Politics, and Organizational Change David Buchanan, Richard Badham, 2008-02-19 Many books on management are sanitized cleanly technical accounts of the unreality of managerial life and work Politics hardly feature This book tells it like it is it dishes the dirt gets low down into the funky and fascinating politics of organizational life Stewart Clegg Aston Business School and University of Technology Sydney Combining a practical and theoretical guide to the politics of organizational change this book provides an exceptional resource to students of change management and organizational behaviour Buchanan and Badham show how the change agent who is not politically skilled will fail and that it is necessary to be able and willing to intervene in the political processes of the organization This revised edition includes a range of excellent new material and features including a new chapter on gender in approaches to organization politics a full range of teaching materials including case studies incident reports self assessments and more Each chapter recommends a feature film or DVD to illustrate aspects of organization politics fresh research evidence recent literature on the nature of entrepreneurial politics a model of political expertise and how that can be developed This lively and engaging book is key to MBA and other Masters degree candidates taking courses in change management and organizational behaviour It will also be valuable for practising managers on tailored executive programmes in organization politics Geo-economics and Power Politics in the 21st Century Mikael Wigell, Sören Scholvin, Mika Aaltola, 2018-07-06 Starting from the key concept of geo economics this book investigates the new power politics and argues that the changing structural features of the contemporary international system are recasting the strategic imperatives of foreign policy practice States increasingly practice power politics by economic means Whether it is about Iran s nuclear programme or Russia s annexation of Crimea Western states prefer economic sanctions to military force Most rising powers have also become cunning agents of economic statecraft China for instance is using finance investment and trade as means to gain strategic influence and embed its global rise Yet the way states use economic power to pursue strategic aims remains an understudied topic in International Political Economy and International Relations The contributions to this volume assess geo economics as a form of power politics They show how power and security are no longer simply coupled to the physical control of territory by military means but also to commanding and manipulating the economic binds that are decisive in today s globalised and highly interconnected world Indeed as the volume shows the ability to wield economic power forms an essential means in the foreign policies of major powers In so doing the book challenges simplistic accounts of a return to traditional military driven geopolitics while not succumbing to any unfounded idealism based on the supposedly stabilising effects of interdependence on international relations As such it advances our understanding of geo economics as a strategic practice and as an innovative and timely analytical approach This book will be
