Teaching ESL/EFL Listening and Speaking Jonathan M. Newton, I.S.P. Nation, 2020-10-26 This guide for teachers and teacher trainees provides a wealth of suggestions for helping learners at all levels of proficiency develop their listening and speaking skills and fluency using a framework based on principles of teaching and learning By following these suggestions which are organised around four strands meaning focused input meaning focused output language focused learning and fluency development teachers will be able to design and present a balanced programme for their students Updated with cutting edge research and theory the second edition of Teaching ESL EFL Listening and Speaking retains its hands on focus and engaging format and features new activities and information on emerging topics including Two new chapters on Extensive Listening and Teaching Using a Course Book Expanded coverage of key topics including assessment pronunciation and using the internet to develop listening and speaking skills Easy to implement tasks and suggestions for further reading in every chapter More tools for preservice teachers and teacher trainers such as a sample unit a survival syllabus and topic prompts The second edition of this bestselling book is an essential text for all Certificate Diploma Masters and Doctoral courses for teachers of English as a second or foreign language Here's How to Do Accent Modification Robert McKinney, 2019-03-15 Here s How to Do Accent Modification A Manual for Speech Language Pathologists is designed for speech language pathologists SLPs working with clients on accent modification in American English A growing number of non native speakers are interested in improving their communication skills and SLPs need preparation to work with this clientele The text provides copious advice and many diverse techniques for teaching accent modification from the level of basic sounds to the level of discourse The text emphasizes realistic goal setting so that clients focus on becoming effective communicators as opposed to sounding exactly like native speakers The objective is a balance between clear and natural speech Many SLPs favor intelligibility over naturalness because of their backgrounds working with speech delayed children but with non native speakers this often leads to unnatural speech and listeners focus on how something is said as opposed to what is said Here s How to Do Accent Modification is uniquely geared toward the skills and backgrounds of SLPs working with clients in a one on one setting but is also an excellent introductory text for any English as a Second Language ESL teacher Robert McKinney brings this unique perspective as a speech language pathologist with degrees in both Communication Disorders and Teaching English as a Second Language Also included with the text are numerous practical activities and worksheets for working with clients The ebook includes audio files and video clips to demonstrate working with non native speakers Teaching Writing in English as a Foreign Language Huan Zhao, Lawrence Jun Zhang, 2022-05-30 This book explores teachers cognitions about the teaching of writing in English as a foreign language EFL and their teaching practice as well as factors influencing the formation and reformation process of their cognition Taking stock of Bakhtin s dialogism as the theoretical framework the authors argue that the formation and reformation of teacher cognition is a dialogic process A systematic analysis of participating teachers cognition formation and re formation process suggests the highly individual nature of teachers cognitions EFL researchers and teachers teacher educators teacher education policymakers university administrators and EFL textbook writers could draw on the findings of the study to provide better resources to implement the teaching of EFL writing more effectively The study has adopted a mixed methods approach whose quantitative results show the patterns and differences of teacher cognition among teachers of different backgrounds and with different schooling education and working experiences The qualitative findings show in detail teachers cognition formation and reformation processes and the factors contributing to such processes revealing convergence and divergence of teachers stated cognitions with a focus on the discrepancy between teacher cognition and teaching practice These are useful lenses through which researchers and teachers will find significant implications for offering EFL writing instruction more effectively Qualitative Research in Applied Linguistics J. Heigham, R. Croker, 2009-06-17 Written in a clear informal style for graduate students and practicing teachers embarking on their first qualitative research study in applied linguistics leading authors introduce the principal research approaches and data creation methods to offer novice researchers an easy to follow and straightforward guide to qualitative inquiry English Language Teaching Today Willy A. Renandya, Handoyo Puji Widodo, 2016-08-22 English Language Teaching Today Linking Theory and Practice provides an up to date account of current principles and practices for teaching English in the world today The chapters written by internationally recognized language teacher educators and TESOL specialists introduce the reader to key language skill areas i e listening speaking reading writing pronunciation grammar and vocabulary and explain how each skill area can be taught in a principled manner in diverse language learning contexts Throughout the book the link between theory and practice is explicitly highlighted and exemplified This reader friendly book is suitable for undergraduate and graduate students enrolled in TESOL and other second language education programmes as well as for TESOL professionals who wish to stay current with recent developments in ELT
