African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin, Gaston Jean-Marie Kaboré, 2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film Volume Two of this landmark series on African cinema is devoted to the decolonizing mediation of the Pan African Film Television Festival of Ouagadougou FESPACO the most important inclusive and consequential cinematic convocation of its kind in the world Since its creation in 1969 FESPACO's mission is in principle remarkably unchanged to unapologetically recover chronicle affirm and reconstitute the representation of the African continent and its global diasporas of people thereby enunciating in the cinematic all manner of Pan African identity experience and the futurity of the Black World This volume features historically significant and commissioned essays commentaries conversations dossiers and programmatic statements and manifestos that mark and elaborate the key moments in the evolution of FESPACO over the span of the past five decades With Open Eyes, 2023-12-18 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies historiography the social sciences and cultural anthropology Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western these days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available it creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news storytelling and political debate Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print Focus on African Films Françoise Pfaff, 2004-07-13 Focus on African Films offers pluralistic perspectives on filmmaking across Africa highlighting the distinct thematic stylistic and socioeconomic circumstances of African film production Celluloid Ceiling Gabrielle Kelly, Cheryl Robson, 2014-05-27 An extensive overview of female film directors worldwide showing how they are breaking through the Celluloid Ceiling and succeeding in a still very male dominated industry The book contains exclusive interviews with women film directors explores the impact of digital technology and reaches some surprising conclusions Now that Kathryn Bigelow has made history as the first woman to win an Oscar for directing we ask whether this is a new era for women filmmakers This unique international overview highlights emerging women directors and groundbreaking pioneers and provides a one stop guide to the leading film directors of the 21st century and the people who inspired them From the blockbusters of the Hollywood studios to emerging voices from Saudi Arabia Pakistan and Laos we learn of women making films in traditionally male dominated areas such as action fantasy and horror There are contributions from countries with film industries in every state from nascent to mature and this book demonstrates how economic and technological change is creating new opportunities for women film directors everywhere

BEST BOOK ON WOMEN DIRECTORS DUE TO ITS GLOBAL OVERVIEW Diane Amazon Gabrielle Kelly and Cheryl Robson have crafted a watershed work CELLULOID CEILING is essential reading for anyone who wants to know how women directors are helping reshape filmmaking D A Morris Amazon This book is an essential resource for anyone tracking the inspiring work being done by women film directors from around the world UCF Film The level of public consciousness about the barriers faced by female filmmakers is higher than it has ever been Despite this the discussion more often than not centres around North America and to a lesser extent Europe Australia and New Zealand and I am guilty as charged This is perfectly understandable but clearly women do make films outside of these countries and it can be illuminating to consider how their experiences reflect or differ from those with which we are more familiar To this end the arrival of a new book The Celluloid Ceiling could not be more timely Edited by Gabrielle Kelly and Cheryl Robson it takes a purposefully global overview of the status quo and in doing so provides some fascinating stories and insights reminding us of what is lost when we limit the discussion to Anglophone directors Matthew Hammett Knott indiewire

African Masculinities L. Ouzgane, R. Morrell, 2005-03-15 While masculinity studies enjoys considerable growth in the West there is very little analysis of African masculinities This volume explores what it means for an African to be masculine and how male identity is shaped by cultural forces The editors believe that to tackle the important questions in Africa the many forms of violence wars genocides familial violence and crime and the AIDS pandemic it is necessary to understand how a combination of a colonial past patriarchal cultural structures and a variety of religious and knowledge systems creates masculine identities and sexualities The work done in the book particularly bears in mind how vulnerability and marginalization produce complex forms of male identity The book is interdisciplinary and is the first in depth and comprehensive study of African men as a gendered category
