Mehta, 2009-09-14

Notions of Identity, Diaspora and Gender in Caribbean Women's Writing uses a unique four dimensional lens to frame questions of diaspora and gender in the writings of women from Martinique Guadeloupe and Haiti These divergent and interconnected perspectives include violence trauma resistance and expanded notions of Caribbean identity In these writings diaspora represents both a wound created by slavery and Indian indenture and the discursive praxis of defining new identities and cultural possibilities These framings of identity provide inclusive and complex readings of transcultural Caribbean diasporas especially in terms of gender and minority cultures

Diaspora, Memory and Identity Vijay Agnew, 2005-01-01 Memories establish a connection between a collective and individual past between origins heritage and history Those who have left their places of birth to make homes elsewhere are familiar with the question Where do you come from and respond in innumerable well rehearsed ways Diasporas construct racialized sexualized gendered and oppositional subjectivities and shape the cosmopolitan intellectual commitment of scholars The diasporic individual often has a double consciousness a privileged knowledge and perspective that is consonant with postmodernity and globalization The essays in this volume reflect on the movements of people and cultures in the present day when physical social and mental borders and boundaries are being challenged and sometimes successfully dismantled The contributors from a variety of disciplinary perspectives discuss the diasporic experiences of ethnic and racial groups living in Canada from their perspective including the experiences of South Asians Iranians West Indians Chinese and Eritreans Diaspora Memory and Identity is an exciting and innovative collection of essays that examines the nuanced development of theories of Diaspora subjectivity double consciousness gender and class experiences and the nature of home The Creolization of Theory Françoise Lionnet, Shumei Shi, 2011-05-19
