Beyond Ego Roger N. Walsh, Frances E. Vaughan, 1980-01-01 African American Psychology A. Kathleen Hoard Burlew, 1992-09-04 In an effort to help develop an approach to psychology that is consistent with the African American experience African American Psychology provides a comprehensive overview of African American behavior and personality This collection of classical papers drawn from The Journal of Black Psychology points out that a Eurocentric perspective or orientation is inherent not only in most psychological theory but also in the research methods developed to test psychological theories As such those who try to understand the African American experience must not limit themselves to traditional concepts or research methods The five sections of this volume cover both alternative and theoretical perspectives and new approaches to conducting research the diversity of structure in African American families and the forces affecting them African American children and two controversial but critical areas of study intelligence and cognition

A Different Drummer Bruce Alden Cox, 1987-10-15 This volume is a collective production by Carleton University's anthropology caucus for use in introductory courses in cultural anthropology It is an alternative to available textbooks which the caucus feels are mainly American in orientation and not respectful of third and fourth world peoples Sitting In The Fire Arnold Mindell, 2014 Arnold Mindell Ph D shows how working with power rank revenge and abuse helps build sustainable communities Mindell is the co founder of processwork and author of numerous books including Quantum Mind The Deep Democracy of Open Forums and The Leader as Martial Artist He has appeared on national radio and television and works internationally with multi racial and highly conflicted groups     Irreducible Mind Edward F. Kelly, Emily Williams Kelly, Adam Crabtree, 2010 Current mainstream opinion in psychology neuroscience and philosophy of mind holds that all aspects of human mind and consciousness are generated by physical processes occurring in brains Views of this sort have dominated recent scholarly publication The present volume however demonstrates empirically that this reductive materialism is not only incomplete but false The authors systematically marshal evidence for a variety of psychological phenomena that are extremely difficult and in some cases clearly impossible to account for in conventional physicalist terms Topics addressed include phenomena of extreme psychophysical influence memory psychological automatisms and secondary personality near death experiences and allied phenomena genius level creativity and mystical states of consciousness both spontaneous and drug induced The authors further show that these rogue phenomena are more readily accommodated by an alternative transmission or filter theory of mind brain relations advanced over a century ago by a largely forgotten genius F W H Myers and developed further by his friend and colleague William James This theory moreover ratifies the commonsense conception of human beings as causally effective conscious agents and is fully compatible with leading edge physics and neuroscience The book should command the attention of all open minded persons concerned with the still unsolved mysteries of the mind
