Bonniest Companie Kathleen Jamie:

The Bonniest Companie Kathleen Jamie, 2015-10-08 In her extraordinary collection Kathleen Jamie examines her native Scotland a country at once wild and contained rural and urban and her place within it In the author's own words 2014 was a year of tremendous energy in my native Scotland and knowing I wanted to embrace that energy and participate in my own way I resolved to write a poem a week and follow the cycle of the year The poems also venture into childhood and family memory and look to ahead to the future The Bonniest Companie is a visionary response to a year shaped and charged by both local and global forces and will stand as a remarkable document of our times Selected Poems Kathleen Jamie, 2018-10-18 Kathleen Jamie's Selected Poems gathers together some of the finest work by one of the foremost poets currently writing in English Although Jamie is perhaps best known for her writing on nature landscape and place Selected Poems shows the full and remarkably diverse range of her work and why many regard her work as crucially relevant to our troubled age No poet currently writing has a keener eye or ear no poet has paid more careful attention to the other consciousnesses with whom we share the planet and no poet has Jamie's almost miraculous ability to show us just how the world might look when the human eye ceases to gaze on it This exceptional collection of poetry spanning several decades allows readers to chart the development of one of our most important contemporary talents and serves as perfect introduction to her work Nature and Space in Contemporary Scottish Writing and Art Camille Manfredi, 2019-05-29 This book examines how contemporary Scottish writers and artists revisit and reclaim nature in the political and aesthetic context of devolved Scotland Camille Manfredi investigates the interaction of landscape aesthetics and strategies of spatial representation in Scotland's twenty first century literature and arts focusing on the apparatuses designed by nature writers poets performers walking artists and visual artists to physically and intellectually engage with the land and re present it to themselves and to the world Through a comprehensive analysis of a variety of site specific artistic practices artworks and publications this book investigates the works of Scotland based artists including Linda Cracknell Kathleen Jamie Thomas A Clark Gerry Loose John Burnside Alec Finlay Hamish Fulton Hanna Tuulikki and Roseanne Watt with a view to exploring the ongoing re invention of a territory bound identity that dwells on an inclusive sense of place as well as on a complex renegotiation with the time and space of Scotland The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, Stephen Butler, James Ward, Kevin De Ornellas, 2020-09-03 THE WILEY BLACKWELL COMPANION TO CONTEMPORARY BRITISH AND IRISH LITERATURE An insightful guide to the exploration of modern British and Irish literature The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature is a must have guide for anyone hoping to navigate the world of new British and Irish writing Including modern authors and poets from the 1960s through to the 21st century the Companion provides a thorough overview of contemporary poetry fiction and drama by some of the most prominent and noteworthy writers Seventy three comprehensive chapters focus on individual authors as well as such topics as Englishness and identity contemporary Science Fiction Black writing in Britain crime fiction and the influence of globalization on British and Irish Literature Written in four parts The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature includes comprehensive examinations of individual authors as well as a variety of themes that have come to define the contemporary period ethnicity gender nationality and more A thorough guide to the main figures and concepts in contemporary literature from Britain and Ireland this two volume set Includes studies of notable figures such as Seamus Heaney and Angela Carter as well as more recently influential writers such as Zadie Smith and Sarah Waters Covers topics such as LGBT fiction androgyny in contemporary British Literature and post Troubles Northern Irish Fiction Features a broad range of writers and topics covered by distinguished academics Includes an analysis of the interplay between individual authors and the major themes of the day and whether an examination of the latter enables us to appreciate the former The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Literature provides essential reading for students as well as academics seeking to learn more about the history and future direction of contemporary British and Irish Literature

Antlers of Water Kathleen Jamie, 2020-08-06 Luminous The Times Beautiful Caught by the River Bringing together contemporary Scottish writing on nature and landscape this inspiring collection takes us from walking to wild swimming from red deer to pigeons and wasps from remote islands to back gardens through prose poetry and photography Edited and introduced by Kathleen Jamie and with contributions from Amy Liptrot Jim Crumley Chitra Ramaswamy Malachy Tallack Amanda Thomson and many more Antlers of Water urges us to renegotiate our relationship with the more than human world in writing which is by turns celebratory radical and political

Post-Romantic Aesthetics in Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Stefanie John, 2021-06-23 This book demonstrates the legacies of Romanticism which animate the poetry and poetics of Eavan Boland Gillian Clarke John Burnside and Kathleen Jamie It argues that the English Romantic tradition serves as a source of inspiration and critical contention for these Irish Welsh and Scottish poets and it relates this engagement to wider concerns with gender nation and nature which have shaped contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Covering a substantial number of works from the 1980s to the 2010s the book discusses how Boland and Clarke as women poets from the Republic of Ireland and Wales react to a male dominated and Anglocentric lyric tradition and thus rework notions of the Romantic It examines how Burnside and Jamie challenge adopt and revise Romantic aesthetics of nature and environment The book is the first in depth study to read Boland Clarke Burnside and Jamie as post Romantics By disentangling the aesthetic and critical conceptions of Romanticism which inform their inheritance it develops an innovative approach to the understanding of contemporary poetry and literary influence

Ted Hughes in Context Terry Gifford, 2018-06-21 Ted Hughes wrote in a wide range of modes which were informed by an even wider range of contexts to which his lifetime s reading interests and experience gave him access The achievement of Ted Hughes as one of the major poets of the twentieth century is complimented by his growing reputation as a writer of letters plays literary criticism and translations In addition

Hughes made important contributions to education literary history emergent environmentalism and debates about life writing Ted Hughes in Context brings together thirty four contributors who inform new readings of the works and conceptualize Hughes s work within long standing critical traditions while acknowledging a new awareness of his future importance This collection offers consideration not only of the most important aspects of Hughes s work but also the most neglected

Travel and Intercultural Communication Eva Lambertsson Björk, Jutta Eschenbach, 2017-11-06 This volume brings together the proceedings of Going North An Interdisciplinary Conference on Travel and Intercultural Communication held in Halden Norway in 2016 Today s world is akin to a global network where spatial linguistic and cultural mobility reshapes our identities This mobility is unprecedented in its scope and is caused by a multitude of reasons from purely leisurely travel to desperate flight The Going North conference addressed the role of travel past and present and intercultural communication connected to travel The book brings together texts focusing on going north from several geographical points of departure from a wide range of genres and explores a range of intercultural aspects such as issues of identity othering the crossing of borders and cultural perceptions of the north

Contemporary Scottish Poetry and the Natural World Szuba Monika Szuba, 2019-06-24 Examines the representation of landscape in the poetry of John Burnside Kathleen Jamie Robin Robertson and Kenneth White Provides an interdisciplinary approach to the representation of landscape in contemporary poetry Opens up the dialogue between ecocriticism and phenomenology Provides significant original discussion of major Scottish poets Reassesses the work and place of Kenneth White s poetry and thought With an exciting and provocative approach to the reading of landscape and the non human world in the work of four major Scottish poets this groundbreaking book merges phenomenology and ecocritical literary criticism It explores these poets organic intimate interrelation between the self and the world their relationship to the landscape and connection with nature

The Keelie Hawk Kathleen Jamie, 2024-09-26 The Keelie Hawk is a landmark collection from Kathleen Jamie the current Makar National Poet of Scotland For the first time Kathleen Jamie has brought her astonishing lyric talent to the language of her homeland with outstanding results The Keelie Hawk is a deeply resonant collection written in Scots with each poem accompanied by a translation into English Its publication is a significant event in Scottish literature not only a reclaiming by one of our finest poets of the mouth music of literary Scots but a furthering of that language by making poems a language develops Jamie observes in a fascinating afterword
