contexts and contemporary challenges this book offers new insights into HRE particularly in the context of issues relating to children's rights education and participation

Students Mentoring Students in K-8 Classrooms Diane Vetter, 2023-06-07 Today's students bring with them to the classroom a wide variety of understandings and ways of knowing. Sharing this richness of understanding as well as students' unique ways of looking at challenges, solving problems, and interpreting the world adds an incredible depth and meaning to all types of classroom learning. This thoughtful guide offers authentic, meaningful, and purposeful activities that will lead students to share their thinking and to support and mentor each other emotionally, socially, and academically. It explores numerous ways to create opportunities for shared learning, mentoring partnerships, and expanding student horizons.

Teaching Outdoors Creatively Stephen Pickering, 2017-04-21 Teaching Outdoors Creatively offers guidance and a variety of exciting ideas to suit the full range of primary schools and locations. Underpinned by current research and practical experience, it investigates innovative approaches to working creatively with children beyond the classroom. While recognising the diverse needs and opportunities that primary schools have to develop the outdoors as part of their curriculum, it presents a broad range of activities, philosophies, and approaches. Key themes explored include: Understanding and using local and home environments; Investigating streets and buildings in your area; Planning fieldwork; Using rivers to inspire children; Forest schools; Beach schools; Physical education outdoors; Learning through adventure. Teaching Outdoors Creatively supports teaching and learning in a wide range of settings, from schools in rural and urban areas to off-site outdoor education centres and residential visits. With a focus on developing effective and stimulating learning environments for children, it is a must-have resource for all busy trainee and practising teachers.
