Bristol Postcard History Tennessee:

Bristol to Knoxville Elena Irish Zimmerman, 1996-10 Bristol to Knoxville A Postcard Tour takes us on a journey back to a simpler time 1939 and invites us to tour the towns of East Tennessee by means of the picture postcard The 1930s were fascinating years in America It was a time of struggle and yet of hope of hardship and yet of optimism America fought her way through the Depression to emerge the better for it and those who came through were determined to live the American dream In 1939 as in previous decades the postcard was a supremely popular means of fast and easy communication Postcard companies sent their photographers all over America to cities and crossroads alike These photographers captured on film scenes that would prove popular commercially but in doing so they were unknowingly creating a tremendous archive of historical images that are of great value today for the insights they offer into the way life was lived in the early twentieth century

Sullivan County Joe Tennis, 2008 Sullivan County sits at the center of the Tri Cities region of northeast Tennessee with a scenic skyline miles of mountains in the Cherokee National Forest and three large lakes built by the Tennessee Valley Authority Well known county crossroads include Colonial Heights and Bloomingdale while famous local landmarks include Warriors Path State Park the stalagmites of the Appalachian Caverns and Bristol Caverns the World's Fastest Half Mile Track at Bristol Motor Speedway the Birthplace of Country Music at Bristol and the Grand Guitar the world's only guitar shaped museum Piney Flats is the home of Rocky Mount once the capitol building of the Territory of the United States South of the River Ohio Bluff City boasts railroad history and Civil War stories along the South Fork of the Holston River Kingsport lays claim to Netherland Inn Bays Mountain Park and the Long Island of the Holston a sacred place for the Cherokees The courthouse town of Blountville holds the distinction of being the only county seat in Tennessee that is not incorporated

Bristol George Stone, Sonya A. Haskins, 2005 Images of America Bristol celebrates the history of the town known as A Good Place to Live Joseph A Anderson bought land on the Virginia Tennessee border from his father in law Rev James King and founded Bristol in 1852 Just four years later the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad came to Bristol and the town became a major trading center of the Appalachian region During the Civil War Bristol was a vital railway link between the North and the South and it later became known as the birthplace of country music Readers are sure to enjoy viewing over 200 vintage photographs of the train station the Carter Family the King family Virginia Intermont College and King College as well as homes and people from all walks of life The S E Massengill drug manufacturing company shown on the cover is among the highlighted industries

Bristol George Stone, 2008 In 1852 Joseph R Anderson purchased 100 acres on the Virginia Tennessee border with the intent of building a town in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains Four years later Bristol was incorporated and it celebrated its 150th birthday in 2006 Taking its name from the English city Bristol is also known as the Twin City because of its two distinct towns with two separate governments one in Virginia and the other in Tennessee Postcard History Series Bristol portrays the city from the late 1800s through its growth during the 20th century and preserves its rich heritage in vintage postcards Bristol to Knoxville Elena Irish Zimmerman,1996-10-01 Bristol to Knoxville A Postcard Tour takes us on a journey back to a simpler time 1939 and invites us to tour the towns of East Tennessee by means of the picture postcard The 1930s were fascinating years in America It was a time of struggle and yet of hope of hardship and yet of optimism America fought her way through the Depression to emerge the better for it and those who came through were determined to live the American dream In 1939 as in previous decades the postcard was a supremely popular means of fast and easy communication Postcard companies sent their photographers all over America to cities and crossroads alike These photographers captured on film scenes that would prove popular commercially but in doing so they were unknowingly creating a tremendous archive of historical images that are of great value today for the insights they offer into the way life was lived in the early twentieth century The Tennessee-Virginia Tri-cities Tom Lee,2005

Bristol, Tennessee/Virginia Victor N. Phillips,1992 Covering Bristol s formative years this is the story of people and events surrounding the rise of this city between two states the town that Joseph R Anderson its founder wanted to call Paradise The book reveals a cross section of Bristol s ancestry ranging from the noble and well known to the humble and obscure Containing a myriad of facts that will be of wide local interest the narrative offers insight into the human condition as it existed during the last century Enhanced with numerous old photographs this carefully researched volume is a definitive reference on Bristol American Woman Suffrage Postcards Kenneth Florey,2016-04-29 American women s suffrage activists were fascinated with suffrage themed postcards They collected them exchanged them wrote about them used them as fundraisers and organized postcard day campaigns The cards they produced were imaginative and ideological advancing arguments for the enfranchisement of women and responding to antisuffrage broadsides Commercial publishers were also interested in suffrage cards recognizing their profit potential Their products though were reactive rather than proactive conveying stereotypes they assumed reflected public attitudes often negative towards the movement Cataloging approximately 700 examples this study examines the visual rhetoric of suffrage postcards in the context of the movement itself and as part of the general history of postcards McMinn County Joe Guy,2010 McMinn County was founded in 1819
