

The background of the cover is a historical illustration of a river scene, likely the River Thames in London. In the foreground, four figures in 16th-century attire stand on a grassy bank. From left to right: a man in a blue tunic and dark hose, a man in a red robe and cap, a woman in a black bodice and purple skirt, and a woman in a blue bodice and yellow skirt. They are looking towards a large building complex on the opposite bank. The river is filled with many small boats and a larger boat with several people. The cityscape in the background is dense with red-roofed buildings and a winding path.
