Broken Chain by Gary Soto

LITERARY FOCUS: CONFLICT

Plot is a series of related events that take place in a story. Through the plot we learn what happens to a story's characters. Most main characters in stories grapple with one or more conflicts as the action unfolds. Conflict is a character's struggle to get what he or she wants. An external conflict occurs when a character struggles against outside forces. An internal conflict occurs when a struggle takes place within a character's own mind. As the plot of a story unfolds, the character acts to resolve the conflicts. Here are some examples of external and internal conflicts:

External Conflict	Internal Conflict
A camper goes on a hike, loses her compass, and can't find her way back.	An athlete can't decide whether to try out for the swim team or for the soccer team.
Two friends in a spelling bee compete for the grand prize.	Someone who once nearly drowned has to overcome a fear of the water.
An office worker gets locked in a supply closet.	A young actor experiences stage fright.

READING SKILLS: SUMMARIZING A PLOT

When you summarize a plot, you retell the main events in a story. Summarizing a plot helps you clarify what's happened to whom and when it happened. As you read "Broken Chain," look for Summarize notes in the margins. Then, use your own words to explain what has taken place.
