Awards by the National Institutes of Health, 1973 Public Health Service Research Grants and Fellowships National Institutes of Health (U.S.). Division of Research Grants. Statistics and Analysis Branch, 1973 Haunted Halls Elizabeth

Tucker, 2009-10-20 Why do so many American college students tell stories about encounters with ghosts In Haunted Halls the first book length interpretive study of college ghostlore Elizabeth Tucker takes the reader back to school to get acquainted with a wide range of college spirits Some of the best known ghosts that she discusses are Emory University s Dooley who can disband classes by shooting professors with his water pistol Mansfield University s Sara who threw herself down a flight of stairs after being rejected by her boyfriend and Huntingdon College s Red Lady who slit her wrists while dressed in a red robe Gettysburg College students have collided with ghosts of soldiers while students at St Mary of the Woods College have reported frightening glimpses of the Faceless Nun Tucker presents campus ghostlore from the mid 1960s to 2006 with special attention to stories told by twenty first century students through e mail and instant messages Her approach combines social psychological and cultural analysis with close attention to students own explanations of the significance of spectral phenomena As metaphors of disorder insanity and school spirit college ghosts convey multiple meanings Their colorful stories warn students about the dangers of overindulgence as well as the pitfalls of potentially horrifying relationships Besides offering insight into students initiation into campus life college ghost stories make important statements about injustices suffered by Native Americans African Americans and others Manufacturers Record, 1929 American

Anthropologist, 1927 Doing Theology in the Age of Trump Dr. Jeffrey W. Robbins, Clayton Crockett, 2018-11-08 This book is a work of theological resistance It is not so much about the presidency of Donald Trump as it is about what his popularity and rise to power reveal about the state of Christianity and the moral character of the evangelical Right in the United States today More specifically it is about the threat of white Christian nationalism which is the particular form that the nationalist populist movement of Trumpism has adopted for itself The contributors are all fellows from the Westar Institute s academic seminar on God and the Human Future and include many of the leading figures in theology and

Continental philosophy of religion This volume provides a form of theopolitical resistance based on intersectionality The authors recognize how the various forms of oppression interrelate to contribute to a vast dynamic and seeming impenetrable network of systemic injustice and marginalization These essays demonstrate that politics need not be played as a zero sum game with a winner take all mentality and that a critical theology is as urgently needed and as relevant now as ever
