Anna was stuck in a dead end job and a loveless marriage Once her children had flown the nest she realised she needed to make some major changes to uncover the person she once was the confident and spirited individual she had been As hard as it would be to move out of the family home and regardless of how apprehensive Anna felt about going alone she was much more scared of staying After gathering all the courage she could muster and having made many plans Anna and her trusted dog Teddy set out to the Norfolk coast to build a new life Anna had rented a small wooden beach house she had come across while walking Teddy along the coast it needed quite a bit of TLC but Anna was up for the job imagining the beach walks her and Teddy could enjoy and the view of the sea that would greet her each morning Anna was sure this would be a good place to start her new life Anna was welcomed in the community and one particular resident a very colourful lady named Maggie decided to take Anna under her wing Maggie was a pillar in the beachside community and she knew everyone and everything that went on A twist of fate and a little help from Maggie led Anna to a run down beach caf which like herself needed rebuilding What Anna didn't expect was who this little caf would bring into her life or the person from her past who would come back to haunt her and the adventures she would have along the way

Growing up with Parents who have Learning Difficulties Tim Booth, Wendy Booth, 2005-08-10 Growing up with Parents who have Learning Difficulties uses a life story approach to present new evidence about how children from such families manage the transition to adulthood and about the longer term outcomes of such an upbringing It offers a view of parental competence as a social attribute rather than an individual skill assessing the implications for institutional policies and practices The authors address the notion of children having to parent their disabled parents and argue for a shift in emphasis from protecting children to supporting families This innovative book provides a fresh approach to a subject rife with prejudice and challenges us to think again about many taken for granted ideas about the process of parenting and the needs of children It also demonstrates the power of narrative research and its capacity for bringing alive people's experience in a way that enables us to better understand their lives

Maggie's Forty Acres Gregory N Richardson, 2019-04-12 A dying Maggie fills the last days of her life by telling her life story to her sister and care giver Alice Both women lived most of their lives as single women in the young American West The adventure for both began in 1883 when their family moved from the home of generations of their family in Sackville NB Canada to the raw West outside Custer South Dakota Territory This dramatically altered life opportunities for both women From a one room school in Custer Maggie blossomed into the best educated of her family Her older brothers cowboys in the raw land north of the Missouri believed in her so much they paid her tuition at Hastings College Nebraska South Dakota then paid for her next three years of college at Spearfish Normal College After five years of teaching in Custer Maggie returned to college in Chicago to study not the facts to be taught but the most effective means to teach the young She emerged an Educational Specialist working for struggling new schools in the West

Fictions of Home Martin Mühlheim, 2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics
