Kafka's Italian Progeny Saskia Elizabeth Ziolkowski, 2020-01-06 This book explores Kafka's sometimes surprising connections with key Italian writers from Italo Calvino to Elena Ferrante who shaped Italy's modern literary landscape

Kafka's Zoopoetics Naama Harel, 2020-05-04 Nonhuman figures are ubiquitous in the work of Franz Kafka from his early stories down to his very last one Despite their prominence throughout his oeuvre Kafka's animal representations have been considered first and foremost as mere allegories of intrahuman matters In recent years the allegorization of Kafka's animals has been poetically dismissed by Kafka's commentators and politically rejected by posthumanist scholars. Such critique however has yet to inspire either an overarching or an interdiscursive account. This book aims to fill this lacuna. Positing animal stories as a distinct and significant corpus within Kafka's entire poetics and closely examining them in dialogue with both literary and posthumanist analysis, Kafka's Zoopoetics critically revisits animality, interspecies relations, and the very human-animal contradistinction in the writings of Franz Kafka. Kafka's animals typically stand at the threshold between humanity and animality, fusing together human and nonhuman features. Among his liminal creatures, we find a human transformed into vermin in The Metamorphosis, an ape turned into a human being in A Report to an Academy, talking jackals in Jackals and Arabs, a philosophical dog in Researches of a Dog, a contemplative mole-like creature in The Burrow, and indiscernible beings in Josefine the Singer, or the Mouse People. Depicting species boundaries as mutable and obscure, Kafka creates a fluid human-animal space which can be described as humanimal. The constitution of a humanimal space radically undermines the stark barrier between human and other animals dictated by the anthropocentric paradigm. Through denying animalistic elements in humans and disavowing the agency of nonhuman animals, excluding them from social life and neutralizing compassion for them, this barrier has been designed to regularize both humanity and animality. The contextualization of Kafka's animals within posthumanist theory engenders a post-anthropocentric arena which is simultaneously both imagined and very real. Senate Document, 2003. Appropriations, Budget Estimates, Etc United States Congress, 2003.
