Harrower,Preston Hill,2022-06-08 Whether we realize it or not our churches are full of those who have experienced and are living with the aftereffects of horror and trauma whether as survivors carers or perpetrators The central question of this book is simple How can our churches become open to the Trinity such that they are trauma safe environments for everyone How can we join the triune God to become trauma safe churches While the reality is bleak the church can dare to hope for healing because of the reality of God and the body of Christ Using the metaphor of the dawn of Sunday the authors propose a double witness to trauma that straddles the boundary between the deadly silence of Holy Saturday and the joy of Easter Sunday While witnessing loss and lament we can also be open to the possibility of new life through God s trinitarian works of safety and recovery in the church This involves adopting some basic principles and practices of trauma safety that every pastor congregation and layperson can begin using today Creating trauma safe churches is possible through God the Trinity

The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity R. Paul Stevens, Robert Banks, 2018-12-01 I am thrilled to know that The Complete Book of Everyday Christianity is being relaunched A well worn first edition of this book sits next to my office desk and I consult it often There is no better collection of everyday issues examined from a Christian perspective A wide variety of topics are addressed with a cleverly balanced combination of academic and practical perspectives informed by thoughtful biblical and theological reflection This is a wonderfully useful tool I am pleased that it will be available to resource a new generation of Christians who are eager to understand more about what it means to follow Christ in every aspect of life Alistair Mackenzie Senior Lecturer School of Theology Mission and Ministry Laidlaw College Christchurch New Zealand Also Director of Faith at Work NZ The Living Church ,1946 The Church Times ,1904 Reimagining Ministerial Formation David Heywood, 2021-04-30 The Church is currently experiencing a transition in the way it understands and practises both mission and ministry It is to be outward looking engaging with the wider community involving all its members in mission and clergy are to play the role of enablers and equippers of the ministry of the whole church However ministerial formation in colleges and courses throughout the country lags behind this emerging consensus Theological education is still largely based on academic models Reimagining Ministerial Formation offers a new way forward where ministry comes to be about the whole church and ministerial formation is about collaboration between clergy and laity It argues strongly for a shift away from front loaded training to a new focus on formation as a life long process
