Between the Sheets Tamesha Avery, 2015-03-06 A collection of love poetry made with the intent to touch the heart and warm the mind This poet will touch you with her sentiments to get back to the love that we leave between the sheets

Between the Sheets Lesley McDowell, 2012-02-28 The literary critic examines the love lives and career ambitions of some of the twentieth century's greatest female authors from Sylvia Plath to Anaïs Nin Why did a gifted writer like Sylvia Plath stumble into a marriage that drove her to suicide Why did Hilda Doolittle H D want to marry Ezra Pound when she was far more attracted to women Why did Simone de Beauvoir pimp for Jean Paul Sartre In Between the Sheets author and feminist scholar Lesley McDowell examines nine famously troubled literary romances to arrive at a provocative insight into the motivations of these and other great female writers The list of the damages done in each of these sexual relationships is long but each provokes the same question would these women have become the writers they became without these relationships Delving into their diaries letters and journals McDowell examines the extent to which each woman was prepared to put artistic ambition before personal happiness and how dependent on their male writing partners they felt themselves to be McDowell has culled incredibly juicy details With so many affairs and broken hearts the most surprising thing may be that anything got written in the last 100 years The New York Times Book Review The Concise Oxford Companion to English Literature

Dinah Birch, Katy Hooper, 2013-05-30 Based on the bestselling Oxford Companion to English Literature this is an indispensable compact guide to all aspects of English literature Over 5 500 new and revised A to Z entries give unrivalled coverage of writers works historical context literary theory allusions characters and plot summaries Discursive feature entries supply a wealth of information about important genres in literature For this fourth edition the dictionary has been fully revised and updated to include expanded coverage of postcolonial African black British and children's literature as well as improved representation in the areas of science fiction biography travel literature women's writing gay and lesbian writing and American literature The appendices listing literary prize winners including the Nobel Man Booker and Pulitzer prizes have all been updated and there is also a timeline chronicling the development of English literature from c 1000 to the present day Many entries feature recommended web links which are listed and regularly updated on a dedicated companion website Written originally by a team of more than 140 distinguished authors and extensively updated for this new edition this book provides an essential point of reference for English students teachers and all other readers of literature in English

The Collected Poetry of Malcolm Lowry Malcolm Lowry, Chris Ackerley, 1992 Although his literary reputation rests primarily on his novels Malcolm Lowry 1909-57 considered himself to be a poet and he composed an extensive poetic canon No reliable edition of Lowry's poetry currently exists Increasing critical interest in all aspects of Lowry's life and work prompted the preparation of this complete edition of his poetry in which the poems are located identified dated arranged collated annotated and explicated by biographical critical and textual introductions Under the Covers and between the Sheets C. Look Ma, "Hands" on Poetry Adele Steiner, 2008-05 The workshops in Look Ma Hands on Poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry They do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i e the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language The workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing As a result when students complete a series of workshops from this book they will know how to write a poem They may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works Finally there are exciting ideas in Look Ma Hands on Poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry The workshops in this book run from 45 60 minutes with the time divided into three segments In the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing In the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing Finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time Because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound Each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems As a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or two week poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy Workshops in the book include the Sleight of Hand and Animal Mask Workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems They use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the Native American Chant and Rap Workshops and then they literally play with words to write Bingo and Multiple Voice Poems Young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the Blues Love Potion and Ode Workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing Bubble and Rainbow Poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in Echphrastic Poems The book s final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays Suggestions for readings include the Poetry Cafe which can incorporate any of the Coffee House Tea Room 1950 s Diner and or Greco Roman Garden venues discussed in this section Student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections

Patterns of Poetry Miller Williams, 1986-08-01 Miller Williams Patterns of Poetry is an encyclopedia of the forms used by poets throughout the history of English from blank verse to hymnal measure from englyn penfyr to the double dactyl from the cleriheuw to the sonnet Each form is introduced with a brief discussion of its origin which is followed by a graphic presentation of its scansion metrics and rhyme scheme Sample poems show how each form actually works Williams begins Patterns of Poetry with an introduction entitled Form and the Age in which he traces the history of form in the arts and the ways in which any form relates to the political social and religious temper of the period in which it becomes dominant He then prefaces the main text with useful notes on rhyme prosodic symbols the major feet metrics and nonce forms Also included in the book are a glossary a bibliography a listing of additional poems in the various patterns poems not included in the text but of great use to teachers an essay on the line as the prosodic unit and an index
