Beyond Apathy A Theology For Bystanders:

Beyond Apathy Elisabeth T. Vasko, 2015-01-01 Theological conversations about violence have typically framed the discussion in terms of victim and perpetrator. Such work while important only addresses part of the problem. Comprehensive theological and pastoral responses to violence must also address the role of collective passivity in the face of human denigration. Given the pervasiveness of inaction whether in the form of denial, willful ignorance or silent complicity a theological reflection on violence that holds bystanders accountable especially those who occupy social sites of privilege is long overdue. In Beyond Apathy Elisabeth T. Vasko utilizes resources within the Christian tradition to examine the theological significance of bystander participation in patterns of violence and violation within contemporary Western culture giving particular attention to the social issues of bullying, white racism and sexual violence. In doing so she constructs a theology of redeeming grace for bystanders to violence that foregrounds the significance of social action in bringing about God's basileia.

Teaching for Change L. Juliana Claassens, Charlene van der Walt, Funlola O. Olojede, 2019-03-13 Contributors from various theological higher education institutions in South Africa and beyond come together to reflect on the best pedagogical practices to teach on often complex issues of gender, sexual orientation, race and class and on how they impact on health in our classrooms, in our churches and in the communities where we live and work. Disaffiliating Ministry Gregory Baker, 2019-08-23 This book explores the shifting role of the minister in light of the experiences of college men in the United States. Young men frequently struggle to know what it means to be a man and doubt that churches can supply the meaning and direction for which they hunger. These men are not necessarily lost but they do need a certain kind of spiritual accompaniment that is likely to push many ministers outside of postures and practices with which they have grown comfortable. This interdisciplinary work draws together feminist and masculinist theories, contemporary practices in campus ministry, recent literature on religious deconversion and individual interviews with college men in order to argue for new ways amid the practice of ministry. This work invites ministers to become more apophatic, to grow comfortable with moving away from clarity and to adopt ungrasping postures of ministry that attend to the unfolding theology of the individual. This repositions campus ministers to support young adults from a range of spiritual commitments. Disaffiliating Ministry invites ministers to eliminate wasteful ministerial habits, to explore new ministry practices and to enjoy the freedom of accompanying young men in processes of leaving behind attitudes and actions that cease to be life giving while deepening in faith, courage and responsibility for others. Witnessing Whiteness Kristopher Norris, 2020 Racism at the End of White Christian America: The Theological Origins of White Supremacy Part II Who Is Christ For Us Today Witnessing White Theology Narrating Black Theology Part III Where Do We Go From Here An Ethic of Responsibility Remembrance Repentance Reparation Groan in the Throat Vol. 1 Tony Baugh, 2021-08-05 Provocatively explaining the political and social phenomenon of white supremacy as a religion and providing a theology of redemption for disparaged communities.

affected by it this book is a collection of personal and academic essays that challenge popular notions of American exceptionalism A little bit of everything a mixtape in the tradition of DJ Clue episodic and rhapsodic lifting a panoply of voices in an unexpected way it wrestles with theology and philosophy alike blending poetry with narrative nonfiction and memoir It is a creation of a new and expressive literary experience that is as tragic and triumphant as the Black experience is in America a groaning that cannot be uttered T&T Clark Handbook of African American Theology, 2019-07-25 This handbook explores the central theme of Christian faith from various disciplinary approaches and different contexts of black experience in the United States The central unifying theme is freedom an important concept both in American culture and Christianity African American theology represents a Christian understanding of God's freedom and the good news of God's call for all humankind to enter life true human identity and moral responsibility in genuine and just community Contributors to the volume argue that African American theology highlights how racism and other intersecting forms of oppression complicate the human predicament and that their eradication requires an expansion of salvation to include the liberation of persons who lack full participation in society and enjoyment of the good and goods made possible by that society The essays in this handbook employ the tools of biblical criticism history cultural and social analysis religious studies philosophy and systematic theology in order to explore and assess the nature and impact of race ethnicity gender sexuality class immigration and cultural and moral pluralism in America as well as the intersections between African American and African diasporan religious thought and life Enfleshing Theology Michele Saracino, Robert J. Rivera, 2018-10-31 Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland's theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland's lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women's bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today's world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland's focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland's contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland's development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland's work is at the forefront of that multi-layered polyvalent intersectional theological work

Public Righteousness Abimbola A. Adelakun, 2023-05-25 Public Righteousness The Performative Ethics of Human Flourishing is driven by the idea that part of what manifests as a disorderly display of virtue in public culture is underlined by the desire to see a more righteous society and an expression of the will to enact such an ideal world into reality This book re structures the ferment of such public displays and fashions an ethic that overturns the ostentatious signals of self righteousness and the fierce contest of animating visions This book engages the work of social ethicist Nimi Wariboko to explore an idea of public righteousness In place of smug superiority and phony pieties the performative ethics that inaugurate this public righteousness offer an intellectual and moral competence that establishes rectitude and culminates in human flourishing
