North Borneo Frank Hatton,2015-07-26 Excerpt from North Borneo Explorations and Adventures on the Equator A long association with the East an intimate acquaintance with the work which has been accomplished in North Borneo and the fact that during my official residence at Hong Kong in connection with the British North Borneo Company it fell to my lot to report home the death of Mr Frank Hatton may perhaps be thought to give appropriateness to the few prefatory words which I am glad to have the opportunity of addressing to the readers of the latest addition to the literature of biography and exploration This volume is an unpretentious record of useful and interesting work and at the same time a tribute from a loving father to a devoted son a tender in memoriam to a young life rich in promise but suddenly cut off by a sad mishap ere youth had matured into manhood and when distinction had already been achieved in the paths of science and research The straightforward unaffected story which the young mans diaries tell brings us face to face with life and adventure in British North Borneo until lately as much a terra incognita as some parts of Central Africa About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works A Decade in Borneo (Classic Reprint) Mrs W. B. Pryer,2018-04-22 Excerpt from A Decade in Borneo The first white resident in the territories of the British North Borneo Company and one of its most enthusiastic officers i ir Pryer in taking up an independent position in the country as he now has done Should be able the better to advance its interests Ilis faith in the future has long been established by his making North Borneo his home and his wife is none the less earnest than himself in the work of realizing their unbounded faith in one of the most patriotic of modern enterprises Mrs Pryer in the following pages has added much to our knowledge of Borneo and she keeps well in view the main objects of the founders of the latest British posses sion I feel honoured in being asked to write a few lines by way of Preface to a work which so happily combines utility with romance and Constitutes a new and stirring chapter in the history of the Eastern Seas About the Publisher
