Debating Yoga and Mindfulness in Public Schools Candy Gunther Brown, 2019-03-27 Yoga and mindfulness activities with roots in Asian traditions such as Hinduism or Buddhism have been brought into growing numbers of public schools since the 1970s While they are commonly assumed to be secular educational tools Candy Gunther Brown asks whether religion is truly left out of the equation in the context of public school curricula An expert witness in four legal challenges Brown scrutinized unpublished trial records informant interviews and legal precedents as well as insider documents some revealing promoters of Vedic victory or stealth Buddhism for public school children The legal challenges are fruitful cases for Brown s analysis of the concepts of religious and secular While notions of what makes something religious or secular are crucial to those who study religion they have special significance in the realm of public and legal norms They affect how people experience their lives raise their children and navigate educational systems The question of religion in public education Brown shows is no longer a matter of jurisprudence focused largely on the establishment of a Protestant Bible or nonsectarian prayer Instead it now reflects an increasingly diverse American religious landscape Reconceptualizing secularization as transparency and religious voluntarism Brown argues for an opt in model for public school programs

Zorba the Buddha Hugh B. Urban, 2016-01-12 Zorba the Buddha is the first comprehensive study of the life teachings and following of the controversial Indian guru known in his youth as Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh and in his later years as Osho 1931 1990 Most Americans today remember him only as the sex guru and the Rolls Royce guru who built a hugely successful but scandal ridden utopian community in central Oregon during the 1980s Yet Osho was arguably the first truly global guru of the twentieth century creating a large transnational movement that traced a complex global circuit from post Independence India of the 1960s to Reagan s America of the 1980s and back to a developing new India in the 1990s The Osho movement embodies some of the most important economic and spiritual currents of the past forty years emerging and adapting within an increasingly interconnected and conflicted late capitalist world order Based on extensive ethnographic and archival research Hugh Urban has created a rich and powerful narrative that is a must read for anyone interested in religion and globalization

Chinese and Buddhist Philosophy in Early Twentieth-Century German Thought Eric S. Nelson, 2017-08-24 Presenting a comprehensive portrayal of the reading of Chinese and Buddhist philosophy in early twentieth century German thought Chinese and Buddhist Philosophy in Early Twentieth Century German Thought examines the implications of these readings for contemporary issues in comparative and intercultural philosophy Through a series of case studies from the late 19th century and early 20th century Eric Nelson focuses on the reception and uses of Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism in German philosophy covering figures as diverse as Buber Heidegger and Misch He argues that the growing intertextuality between traditions cannot be appropriately interpreted through notions of exclusive identities closed horizons or unitary traditions Providing an account of the context motivations and hermeneutical strategies of early twentieth century European thinkers interpretation of Asian philosophy Nelson also throws new light on the question of the relation between Heidegger and Asian philosophy Reflecting the growing interest in the possibility of intercultural and global philosophy Chinese and Buddhist Philosophy in Early Twentieth Century German Thought opens up the possibility of a more inclusive intercultural conception of philosophy Problems of Chronology in Gandhāran Art Wannaporn Rienjang, Peter Stewart, 2018-03-14 Since the beginning of Gandhāran studies in the nineteenth century chronology has been one of the most significant challenges to the understanding of Gandhāran art Many other ancient societies including those of Greece and Rome have left a wealth of textual sources which have put their fundamental chronological frameworks beyond doubt In the absence of such sources on a similar scale even the historical eras cited on inscribed Gandhāran works of art have been hard to place Few sculptures have such inscriptions and the majority lack any record of find spot or even general provenance Those known to have been found at particular sites were sometimes moved and reused in antiquity Consequently the provisional dates assigned to extant Gandhāran sculptures have sometimes differed by centuries while the narrative of artistic development remains doubtful and inconsistent Building upon the most recent cross disciplinary research debate and excavation this volume reinforces a new consensus about the chronology of Gandhāra bringing the history of Gandhāran art into sharper focus than ever By considering this tradition in its wider context alongside contemporary Indian art and subsequent developments in Central Asia the authors also open up fresh questions and problems which a new phase of research will need to address Problems of Chronology in Gandhāran Art is the first publication of the Gandhāra Connections project at the University of Oxford's Classical Art Research Centre which has been supported by the Bagri Foundation and the Neil Kreitman Foundation It presents the proceedings of the first of three international workshops on fundamental questions in the study of Gandhāran art held at Oxford in March 2017
