Building Rule Law Arab World:

The City in the Islamic World, Volume 94/1 & 94/2 Salma K. Jayyusi, Renata Holod, Attilio Petruccioli, Andre Raymond, 2008 The purpose of this book is to draw attention to the sites of life politics and culture where current and past generations of the Islamic world have made their mark Unlike many previous volumes dealing with the city in the Islamic world this one has been expanded not only to include snapshots of historical fabric but also to deal with the transformation of this fabric into modern and contemporary urban entities Salma Khadra Jayyusi was awarded Cultural Personality of the Year by the Sheikh Zayed Book Award for her profound contribution to Arabic literature and culture in 2020 The paperback edition of The City in the Islamic World was published to celebrate the occasion Making the Arab World Fawaz A. Gerges, 2019-08-27 Based on a decade of research including in depth interviews with many leading figures in the story this edition is essential for anyone who wants to understand the roots of the turmoil engulfing the Middle East from civil wars to the rise of Al Qaeda and ISIS Routledge Handbook of Middle East Politics Larbi Sadiki, 2020-03-31 Drawing on various perspectives and analysis the Handbook problematizes Middle East politics through an interdisciplinary prism seeking a melioristic account of the field Thematically organized the chapters address political social and historical questions by showcasing both theoretical and empirical insights all of which are represented in a style that ease readers into sophisticated induction in the Middle East It positions the didactic at the centre of inquiry Contributions by forty four scholars both veterans and newcomers rethink knowledge frames conceptual categories and fieldwork praxis Substantive themes include secularity and religion gender democracy authoritarianism and new borderline politics of the Middle East Like any field of knowledge the Middle East is constituted by texts authors and readers but also by the cultural spatial and temporal contexts within which diverse intellectual inflections help construct write speak academic meaning knowing and practice By denaturalizing notions of singularity of authorship or scholarship the Handbook plants a dialogic interplay animated by multi vocality multi modality and multi disciplinarity Targeting graduate students and young scholars of political and social sciences the Handbook is significant for understanding how the Middle East is written and re written read and re read epistemology methodology and for how it comes to exist ontology Contextualizing Sectarianism in the Middle East and South Asia Satgin Hamrah, 2023-07-25 States across the Muslim world are faced with challenges associated with a perpetual cycle of conflict and violence organized along sectarian lines To understand modern day sectarianism it is essential to move beyond explanations that focus predominantly on ancient Sunni Shia animosities or a singular lens It is important to engage in interdisciplinary and multidirectional examinations to better understand how sectarianism is strategically utilized by political entrepreneurs Moreover while religious identities and how individuals define themselves and their communities are important it is also integral to analyze how identity has been utilized in historical and contemporary political contexts on state and non state levels This volume seeks to fill gaps in understanding the complexities associated with sectarianism through a transnational interdisciplinary analytical framework to enhance understanding of the socio political religio political cultural and security landscapes of the Middle East and South Asia It also challenges narratives regarding sectarian divisions between Sunnis and Shias and deconstructs popular misconceptions about sectarianism its spatial and temporal impact as well as its influence on identities conflict and competition The volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers of the Middle East and South Asia and those interested in history politics international relations international security religion and sociology

Structuring Conflict in the Arab World Ellen Lust-Okar,2005-01-10 This book examines how ruling elites manage and manipulate their political opposition in the Middle East In contrast to discussions of government opposition relations that focus on how rulers either punish or co opt opponents this book focuses on the effect of institutional rules governing the opposition It argues rules determining who is and is not allowed to participate in the formal political arena affect not only the relationships between opponents and the state but also between various opposition groups This affects the dynamics of opposition during prolonged economic crises It also shapes the informal strategies that ruling elites use toward opponents The argument is presented using a formal model of government opposition relations It is demonstrated in the cases of Egypt under Presidents Nasir Sadat and Mubarek Jordan under King Husayn and Morocco under King Hasan II

North Africa 2030 Karim Mezran,Armando Sanguini,2022-01-14 Over ten years after the Arab Spring the turmoil that swept across North Africa has taken many forms bringing about change although not always in a desirable direction But the Arab uprisings have also brought about a surprising amount of more of the same a decade on the problems that plagued the region in 2010 have not gone away This report looks at the future of the region asking what will North Africa be in 2030 Which direction could the region as a whole and specific countries take and which challenges will they have to face And what are the implications for Europe and the US

The Palestinian Constitutional Court Osayd Awawda,2022-02-06 This book assesses the legal and practical independence of the Palestinian Constitutional Court since the coup in July 2007 that brought the Fatah regime to power in the West Bank It argues that the Court has failed to perform its fundamental function namely upholding the Basic Law in the face of authoritarian actions by that regime and that it is highly unlikely to resolve this problem while the state of emergency continues This book offers a case study on how constitutional courts in authoritarian regimes fail to fulfil and even obstruct the promises of rights protections contained in constitutional texts Moreover it provides the first English language study that covers the entire collection of judgments and interpretations issued by that Court until the first amendment of its law in October 2017 and thus can be considered one of the most authoritative studies on a court in an authoritarian Arab regime

Building Rule of Law in the Arab World Eva Rana Bellin,Heidi E. Lane,2016 Important and original This rich insightful work makes an important contribution to the scholarly literature and will also be valuable to policymakers and aid professionals who seek to build more stable and accountable states in the Middle East Bruce Rutherford Colgate University How might Arab countries build the foundations for rule of law in the wake of prolonged authoritarian rule What specific challenges do they confront Are there insights to be gained from comparative analysis beyond the region Exploring these questions the authors of Building Rule of Law in the Arab World provide a theoretically informed empirically rich account of key issues facing the countries at the forefront of political change since the Arab Spring as governments seek to develop effective and responsible judiciaries security sectors and anticorruption agencies Eva Bellin is Myra and Robert Kraft Professor of Arab Politics at Brandeis University Heidi E Lane is associate professor of strategy and policy and director of the Greater Middle East Research Study Group at the US Naval War College

Building Regulations and Urban Form, 1200-1900 Terry R. Slater, Sandra M.G. Pinto, 2017-09-20 Towns are complicated places It is therefore not surprising that from the beginnings of urban development towns and town life have been regulated Whether the basis of regulation was imposed or agreed ultimately it was necessary to have a law based system to ensure that disagreements could be arbitrated upon and rules obeyed The literature on urban regulation is dispersed about a large number of academic specialisms However for the most part the interest in urban regulation is peripheral to some other core study and consequently there are few texts which bring these detailed studies together This book provides perspectives across the period between the high medieval and the end of the nineteenth century and across a geographical breadth of European countries from Scandinavia to the southern fringes of the Mediterranean and from Turkey to Portugal It also looks at the way in which urban regulation was transferred and adapted to the colonial empires of two of those nations

Seeking Supremacy Yasser Kureshi, 2022-09-15 Develops a framework to explain shifts in judicial assertiveness towards militaries using Pakistan as an illuminating case study
