disconnect exists between the way pastors children s ministry volunteers and churches describe the health and impact of children s ministry volunteers and the overall functioning of an ongoing children s ministry The volunteer dysfunction that is evident in many churches goes beyond the building scenario or the current strategy that leadership is pursuing If one asks the pastor of just about any local church how the children s ministry is going most pastors will respond positively However if speaking with a children s ministry volunteer one is likely to hear I am burned out but I feel obligated to serve here because we have such a shortage of volunteers and I do love these kids Too often there is no program in place to monitor the health of the ministry Official training is lacking church vision is blurred and many children s ministry volunteers feel like they are nothing more than large group unpaid babysitters This book analyzes these problems and provides pragmatic systematic steps to a healthier more robust children s ministry

Follow the Way Lars

Coburn,2020-04-03 Follow the Way is about how the virtues of humility gratitude and simplicity impact prayer and a relationship with God We learn these virtues from the life of Jesus Like the dust Jesus kicked up stuck to the sweaty disciples as they followed close behind our habits and practices of listening being and seeing stick on those following us Humility teaches us to listen A relationship cannot be a one sided conversation humility reminds us to quiet our own voice enough to recognize the voice of God in our lives Gratitude teaches us to be present A relationship cannot be based solely on the past or the future we need to recognize God in the present in ordinary moments of life Simplicity teaches us to see A relationship cannot have clarity without each understanding the other we need to clear out the noise and interference in order to recognize God s will and plan for our life Humility gratitude and simplicity empower us to pray intimately and experience an intimate relationship where we truly know God not just stuff about God
