Memory and the Wars on Terror Jessica Gildersleeve, Richard Gehrmann, 2017-10-24 This edited collection aims to respond to dominant perspectives on twenty first century war by exploring how the events of 9 11 and the subsequent Wars on Terror are represented and remembered outside of the US framework Existing critical coverage ignores the meaning of these events for people nations and cultures apparently peripheral to them but which have as shown in this collection been extraordinarily affected by the social political and cultural changes these wars have wrought Adopting a literary and cultural history approach the book asks how these events resonate and continue to show effects in the rest of the world with a particular focus on Australia and Britain It argues that such reflections on the impact of the Wars on Terror help us to understand what global conflict means in a contemporary context as well as what its representative motifs might tell us about how nations like Australia and Britain perceive and construct their remembered identities on the world stage in the twenty first century In its close examination of films novels memoir visual artworks media and minority communities in the years since 2001 this collection looks at the global impacts of these events and the ways they have shaped and continue to shape Britain and Australia s relation to the rest of the world

Off the Map Niles Schwartz,2018-06-11 A motion picture chronicling the last adventures of bank robber John Dillinger Johnny Depp Public Enemies was met with much bafflement upon its 2009 release Director Michael Mann s terse storytelling and unorthodox use of high definition digital cameras challenged viewers familiarity with Hollywood s historical gangland elegance while highlighting Public Enemies own place in a medium and culture undergoing sweeping technological change In Off the Map Niles Schwartz immerses us in Mann s representation of Dillinger a subject increasingly aware of his own role as a romanticized frontier folk hero in flight from an enveloping bureaucratic system The cultural issues of Dillinger s 1930s anticipate the 21st century watershed moment for the moving image as our relationship with the pictures surrounding us increasingly affects our own sense of identity historical truth and means of relating to each other Mann s follow up the hacker thriller Blackhat 2015 reflects a world where Public Enemies abstract surveillance state has since colonized the firmament of our everyday lives Yet in this virtual labyrinth of surplus images cinema may inwardly illuminate a transformative path for us Off the Map places Mann s late works in deep focus exploring our present relationship to cinema on a backdrop that swings from the blockbuster spectacle of Avatar to the curious intimacy of Moonrise Kingdom ultimately suggesting the mysterious space between the viewer and the screen may yet become a sanctuary of deep spiritual reflection
