Early Greek Law Michael Gagarin, 1989-04-27 Drawing on the evidence of anthropology as well as ancient literature and inscriptions Gagarin examines the emergence of law in Greece from the 8th through the 6th centuries B C that is from the oral culture of Homer and Hesiod to the written enactment of codes of law in most major cities The Law's Beginnings Ferdinand J.M. Feldbrugge, 2021-09-13 Law as we know it with its rules and rituals its procedures and professionals has not been around forever It came into being it emerged at different places and different times Sources which allow us to observe the processes of law s beginnings have survived in some cases In this book scholars from various disciplines linguists lawyers historians anthropologists present their findings concerning the earliest legal systems of a great variety of peoples and civilizations from Mesopotamia and Ancient India to Greece and Rome from the early Germanic Celtic and Slavic nations but also from other parts of the world The general picture is complemented by an investigation into the Indo European roots of a number of ancient legal systems contributions from the point of view of legal philosophy and theory and an overview of the insights gained

When Does Human Life Begin? - Scientific, Scriptural, and Historical Evidence Supports Implantation John L Merritt, J Lawrence Merritt, II, 2012-04-11 The elusive answer for the question When does human life begin is one that has not been fully resolved This book presents a remarkable discussion for all those who would like a fresh approach to this seemingly simple question This book reviews the status of current medical thinking as well as the history and traditions of the beginning of human life Startling scientific evidence shows that fertilization is not the final step in creating a new life and scripture never refers to fertilization The scriptural evidence clearly states that life is in the blood Ultimately an inclusive analysis reveals how the implantation of the blastocyst into the wall of the uterus eight days after fertilization completes the requirements for a new individual life
