The Atlantic Pact forty Years later Ennio Di Nolfo, 2011-05-02 No detailed description available for The Atlantic Pact forty Years later

Personal Politics in the Postwar World Susanna Erlandsson, 2022-01-27 Unravelling the mechanisms of daily diplomacy in the mid 20th century this book follows one Dutch diplomatic couple the van Kleffens on their postings from the 1930s to the 1950s to offer a new perspective on how non officials and personal politics shaped the postwar world Combining private and public source materials Erlandsson foregrounds the political culture of diplomacy and highlights events and people which have been left off the official record The book integrates the detailed study of behind the scenes diplomatic practice into the larger narrative of traditional diplomatic history connecting social practices with political outcomes Exploring how women s tea drinking was used to achieve post war foreign policy and how Rosa a Guatemalan cook contributed to the international standing of the Netherlands it offers a more inclusive history by recognising the diplomatic work done by actors who were not diplomats In doing so it demonstrates the ways in which diplomacy was class bound gendered and racialized and proves that historicizing gender and cultural norms is crucial to understanding political and international history

The Origins of the Cold War in Europe David Reynolds, 1994-01-01 Although the Cold War is over the writing of its history has only just begun This book presents an analysis of the origins of the Cold War in the decade after the Second World War discussing the development of the United States and the Soviet Union as superpowers and the reactions of the Western European states to the growing Soviet American rivalry Drawing on recently opened archives from the former Soviet Union as well as on existing research largely unavailable in English distinguished authorities from each of the countries discussed provide new insight into the Cold War and into the Europe that has been molded by it The book begins with an overview of United States Cold War policy after the war and a pioneering post communist examination of Russian involvement The next chapters focus on the other two members of the wartime alliance Britain and France for which the Cold War was interwoven with concerns such as the maintenance of empire and the continued fear of Germany The book then examines the vanquished countries of World War II Italy and Germany who particularly in the case of divided Germany were struggling to recover their international status and come to terms with their past The last part of the book considers how the small states Benelux and Scandinavia forged new groupings in the search for security even though conflicts of national interest still persisted between them The authors not only show the impact of superpower policies on each country but also reveal the many ways in which West European states were active participants in Cold War politics trying to draw the Americans into Europe and shaping the blocs that emerged The book sheds light on the European Community in many ways a response to uneasiness about Germany and on NATO whose purpose was once described as keeping the Russians out the Americans in and the Germans down

The Low Countries History Yearbook 1982 J. De Belder, R. W. J. M. Bos, G. Teitler, C. B. Wels, C. Fasseur, A. Meynen, C. R. Emery, Johanna A. Kossmann, 2012-12-06 The present volume number 15 of the Acta

Historiae Neerlandicae which have been appearing since 1978 under the title The Low Countries History Yearbook is the last of the series Economic reasons force the publishers to discontinue it This is a matter for regret Both the editors of the Yearbook and the board of the Nederlands Historisch Genootschap under the auspices of which it has been published are convinced that the books serve a useful purpose We hope that in the future more favourable circumstances will enable Dutch and Flemish historians to start a second series We feel however that the Yearbook should not be allowed to disappear completely In our opinion one of its most attractive features has been the Survey of recent historical works on Belgium and the Netherlands published in Dutch It is the intention of the Nederlands Historisch Genootschap to seek means to continue this in another form probably in that of pamphlets appearing every two years and written by the same or a similar group of experts In that way we may be able to provide a useful service to our colleagues abroad Grenzgänger Horst Lademacher, Walter Mühlhausen, Walter Mühlhausen, Gedenkschriften van Prof. Mr. R.P.
