Summary of American Sniper Instaread Summaries,2016-04-06 Books-in-Brief: Teaching Children Ann El-Moslimany,2020-01-01 IIIT Books In Brief Series is a valuable collection of the Institute s key publications written in condensed form to give readers a core understanding of the main contents of the original The author explores education from the essential principles of Tawhid Oneness of God humanity knowledge fitrah concept of human nature and the role of humans as vicegerents of God on earth responsibility and stewardship The current education system dates back a hundred years or more and is in desperate need of a reboot In developing the industrialized society the education system itself became like a factory the end product being pupils who merely regurgitate facts and themselves end up as cogs in the machine that is the wider industrial complex The legacy of this is a soulless functional educational system that fails to develop pupils to meet the present and future needs of individuals and their expectations This failure inevitably impacts on society and humanity at large Society has long since moved beyond the industrial revolution and into an age of global connectedness where the sum of human knowledge is freely available via the internet It is an age where people are generally more well informed and on a variety of issues An effective holistic educational philosophy is required one that gives full spiritual meaning to all that a child learns It should equip children with spiritual awareness morals and values social responsibility and accountability self discipline and self determination self confidence and empowerment ambition and aspiration tempered with thoughtfulness and a sense of gratitude

Currents in American History: A Brief History of the United States, Volume II: From 1861 Alan C. Elliott, Terry D.

Bilhartz, 2023-06-14 This book focuses on the historic ramifications of a handful of essential events that shaped the American past It describes the causes of a select number of epoch making events and examines the short and long term consequences of these critical turning point moments

Inside the Crosshairs Col. Michael Lee Lanning, 2013-06-19 The American sniper could be regarded as the greatest all around rifleman the world has ever known At the start of the war in Vietnam the United States had no snipers by the end of the war Marine and army precision marksmen had killed more than 10 000 NVA and VC soldiers the equivalent of an entire division at the cost of under 20 000 bullets proving that long range shooters still had a place in the battlefield Now noted military historian Michael Lee Lanning shows how U S snipers in Vietnam combining modern technology in weapons ammunition and telescopes used the experience and traditions of centuries of expert shooters to perfect their craft To provide insight into the use of American snipers in Vietnam Lanning interviewed men with combat trigger time as well as their instructors the founders of the Marine and U S Army sniper programs and the generals to whom they reported Backed by hard information and firsthand accounts the author demonstrates how the skills these one shot killers honed in the jungles of Vietnam provided an indelible legacy that helped save American lives in Grenada the Gulf War and Somalia and continues to this day with American troops in Bosnia

Books-in-Brief: The Postnormal Times Reader

Ziauddin Sardar, 2020-01-01 IIIT Books In Brief Series is a valuable collection of the Institute's key publications written in condensed form to give readers a core understanding of the main contents of the original Postnormal times are best defined as an in between period where old orthodoxies are dying new ones have yet to be born and very few things seem to make sense or as Ezio Mauro puts it we are hanging between the no longer and the not yet and thus we are necessarily unstable nothing around us is fixed not even our direction of travel The postnormal times theory attempts to make sense of a rapidly changing world where uncertainty is the dominant theme and ignorance has become a valuable community The Postnormal Times Reader is a pioneering anthology of writings on the contradictory complex and chaotic nature of our era It covers the origins theory and methods of postnormal times and examines a host of issues ranging from climate change governance Middle East to religion and science from the perspective of postnormal times By mapping some of the key local and global issues of our transitional age the Reader suggests a way of navigating our turbulent futures
