McLeod, 2018 Athletic Taping and Bracing David H Perrin, PhD, ATC, FACSMT, David H. Perrin, 2005 Completely overhauled and updated Athletic Taping and Bracing Second Edition is a leading text in its field Like the popular first edition it continues to integrate the science of anatomy and injury mechanisms with the practice of athletic taping and bracing The new edition is updated to reflect changes in the National Athletic Trainers Association NATA Education Council's Competencies in Athletic Training and the fourth edition of the NATA Board of Certification's Role Delineation Study Both students and professionals will use this text time and again as a reliable reference Athletic Taping and Bracing Second Edition has been significantly improved with the addition of more than 450 full color illustrations and photos These include 60 superb three dimensional anatomical images from Primal Pictures The photos that illustrate taping sequences feature tape with darkened edges that enable readers to distinguish the layers and patterns of the tape applied in each step With its concise anatomical descriptions and detailed anatomical illustrations similar to those normally found in advanced texts on anatomy the book clearly highlights the mechanisms of injury that are crucial for understanding effective taping and bracing The text thoroughly discusses and illustrates the general principles of taping and bracing for each major joint and body region It also contains step by step instructions for 36 taping and wrapping procedures some of which are broken down into as many as 16 steps It illustrates procedures for fabricating protective pads and orthotics and it details the dos and don'ts of taping and bracing To emphasize rehabilitation as well as prevention Athletic Taping and Bracing Second Edition also presents basic stretching and strengthening exercises for injury rehabilitation These exercises presented and illustrated for each body part focus on flexibility strength and proprioception Combined with the taping and bracing procedures the exercises will help rehabilitated athletes maintain strength and flexibility and safely return to play Through Athletic Taping and Bracing Second Edition readers will learn the foundations and techniques of taping and bracing Taping and bracing are presented as adjuncts to rather than panaceas for the athlete's total rehabilitation The emphasis on rehabilitation as well as prevention will help readers become more effective health care providers for athletes and other active people with musculoskeletal injuries and problems To complement the text the companion Sport Taping Basics DVD is also available The DVD brings the book to life by visually demonstrating 22 specific procedures Each procedure is shown in its entirety without disruption The taping procedure is then shown again to highlight the key steps of the procedure and includes close ups and correct positioning of the athletic trainer and athlete making the demonstrations easy to follow Perrin also demonstrates how to properly cut tear and remove tape Based on the previous Sport Taping Basics video set the expanded content and convenient DVD format makes it fast and simple for you to find and select the specific taping procedure you want to review Athletic Taping and Bracing Second Edition and the Sport Taping Basics DVD captures the art and science of taping and bracing through detailed explanations spectacular images and clear demonstrations Working individually or in tandem with one another the book and DVD stay in step with current NATA competencies and practices and offer top quality instruction With all this Athletic Taping and Bracing Second Edition and Sport Taping Basics DVD are the premier instructional taping resources in the athletic training field HK DVDs are coded for universal playback and can be played in all regions of the world Athletic Taping, Bracing, and Casting David H. Perrin, Ian A. McLeod, 2025-09-15 Athletic Taping Bracing and Casting Fifth Edition introduces the most common and frequently applied taping bracing and casting procedures in clinical practice Over 600 photographs and medical illustrations and 57 videos depicting the techniques needed for each major joint and body region are included

Athletic Training Case Scenarios Keith Gorse, Francis Feld, Robert Blanc, 2024-06-01 Every case that athletic trainers respond to is unique but by exposing themselves to a variety of scenarios they can be prepared for almost any situation Case studies are the easiest way to find this information but oftentimes they come in the form of informal anecdotes or only relate to very specific subjects Athletic Training Case Scenarios Domain Based Situations and Solutions is designed to fill this gap by providing a large number of studies from all five of the domains of athletic training Keith M Gorse Francis Feld and Robert O Blanc have gathered true to life scenarios for each of the five domains of athletic training resulting in expert advice on the best response to many possible scenarios These scenarios were shared by the certified athletic trainers who originally responded to them coming from their work in industrial settings high schools colleges professional teams and sports medicine clinics Each scenario features the actual case as it was first assessed by the athletic trainer in order to give readers an opportunity to use their own judgment and decide the best course of action before the original athletic trainer's own response and recommendations are given Organized by domain readers will be able to easily find examples of any case they could imagine Each domain prevention evaluation and diagnosis emergency care treatment and rehabilitation and organizational and professional health has over a dozen scenarios designed to encourage critical thinking This format gives readers the closest thing to a crash course by exposing them to a diverse array of cases and situations Athletic training students and clinicians will appreciate the wide range of cases presented in Athletic Training Case Scenarios Domain Based Situations and Solutions providing them with the strong knowledge base they will need to respond to any situation they may experience themselves
