Beijinger In New York:

Beijinger in New York Guilin Cao,1993 The bestselling novel in China is now available in English A cautionary tale of an immigrant family from China Significant Other Claire Conceison,2004-08-31 Chinese views of the United States have shifted dramatically since the 1980s with changes in foreign relations increased travel of Chinese citizens to the U S and wide circulation of American popular culture in China Significant Other explores representations of Americans that emerged onstage in China between 1987 and 2002 and considers how they function as racial and cultural stereotypes political strategy and artistic innovation Based on fieldwork in Beijing and Shanghai it offers a unique view of contemporary Mainland Chinese spoken drama from the perspective of a Western academic who is both a Chinese studies scholar and a theatre practitioner Claire Conceison s close readings of recent plays take into account not only the texts of the plays themselves and other primary sources but also production contexts creative origins artistic collaboration and audience reception Identifying the American as China s significant Other Conceison introduces the complex cultural relationship between China and the United States situating it in both the long history of Sino Western relations and the present dynamics of post colonialism She then examines the emergent discourse of Occidentalism tracing its origins and recent circulation and repositioning it as a discursive strategy to analyze appearances of Americans on the Chinese stage Conceison maintains that Chinese staging of American characters often played by local actors made up and costumed as Americans and more recently played by foreigners themselves reveals cultural norms and attitudes regarding the United States reflects Sino American political relations articulates Chinese national and cultural identity and signifies innovation in spoken drama as an art form

Transpacific Cartographies Melody Yunzi Li,2023-12-15 Transpacific Cartographies examines how contemporary Chinese diasporic narratives address the existential loss of home for immigrant communities at a time of global precarity and amid rising Sino US tensions Focusing on cultural productions of the Chinese diaspora from the 1990s to the present including novels by the Sinophone writers Yan Geling The Criminal Lu Yanshi Shi Yu New York Lover Chen Qian Listen to the Caged Bird Sing and Rong Rong Notes of a Couple as well as by the Anglophone writer Ha Jin A Free Life A Map of Betrayal selected TV shows Beijinger in New York The Way We Were and online literature Melody Yunzi Li argues that the characters in these stories create multilayered maps that transcend the territorial boundaries that make finding a home in a foreign land a seemingly impossible task In doing so these maps outline a transpacific landscape that reflects the psycho geography of homemaking for diasporic communities Intersecting with and bridging Sinophone studies Chinese American studies and diaspora studies and drawing on theories of literary cartography Transpacific Cartographies demonstrates how these maps offer their readers different paths for finding a sense of home no matter where they are Ich Bin Ein Beijinger Kaiser Kuo,2008-09 TV Drama in China Ying Zhu,Michael Keane,Ruoyun Bai,2008-10-01 This collection of essays brings together the first comprehensive study of TV drama in China Examining in depth the production distribution and consumption of TV drama the international team of experts demonstrate why it remains the pre eminent media form in China The examples are diverse highlighting the complexity of producing narrative content in a rapidly changing political and social environment Genres examined include the revisionist Qing drama historical and contemporary domestic dramas anti corruption dramas pink dramas Red Classics stories from the Diaspora and sit coms In addition to genres the collection explores industry dynamics how TV dramas are marketed and consumed on DVD and China s aspirations to export its television drama rights The book provides an international and cross cultural perspective with chapters on Taiwanese TV drama in China the impact of South Korean drama and trans border production between the Mainland and Hong Kong

National Past-times Ann Anagnost,1997 Anthropologist Ann Anagnost explores the fashioning and refashioning of modern Chinese subjectivity as it relates to the body of the nation Using interviews and participant observation as well as close readings of official documents and propaganda materials and popular media Anagnost notes discontinuities in the nation s self description as though redefined at critical junctures in recent history Photos Beautiful Country: A Read with Jenna Pick Qian Julie Wang,2022-09-27 A NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER The moving story of an undocumented child living in poverty in the richest country in the world an incandescent debut from an astonishing new talent A TODAY SHOW READWITHJENNA PICK In Chinese the word for America Mei Guo translates directly to beautiful country Yet when seven year old Qian arrives in New York City in 1994 full of curiosity she is overwhelmed by crushing fear and scarcity In China Qian s parents were professors in America her family is illegal and it will require all the determination and small joys they can muster to survive In Chinatown Qian s parents labor in sweatshops Instead of laughing at her jokes they fight constantly taking out the stress of their new life on one another Shunned by her classmates and teachers for her limited English Qian takes refuge in the library and masters the language through books coming to think of The Berenstain Bears as her first American friends And where there is delight to be found Qian relishes it her first bite of gloriously greasy pizza weekly shopping days when Qian finds small treasures in the trash lining Brooklyn s streets and a magical Christmas visit to Rockefeller Center confirmation that the New York City she saw in movies does exist after all But then Qian s headstrong Ma Ma collapses revealing an illness that she has kept secret for months for fear of the cost and scrutiny of a doctor s visit As Ba Ba retreats further inward Qian has little to hold onto beyond his constant refrain Whatever happens say that you were born here that you ve always lived here Inhabiting her childhood perspective with exquisite lyric clarity and unforgettable charm and strength Qian Julie Wang has penned an essential American story about a family fracturing under the weight of invisibility and a girl coming of age in the shadows who never stops seeking the light Cinema and Desire Jing Wang,Tani E. Barlow,2020-05-05 Dai Jinhua is one of contemporary China s most influential theoreticians and cultural critics A feminist Marxist her literary film and TV commentary has over the last decade addressed an expanding audience in China Taiwan and Hong Kong Cinema and Desire presents Dai Jinhua s best work to date In it she examines the Orientalism that made Zhang

Yimou the darling of international film festivals establishes Huang Shuqin's Human Woman Demon as the People's Republic's first genuinely feminist film comments on TV representations of the Chinese diaspora in New York speculates on the value of Mao Zedong as an icon of post revolutionary consumerism and analyses the rise of shopping plazas in 1990s urban China as a strange montage in which the political memories of Tiananmen Square and the logic of the global capitalist marketplace are intertwined

China Briefing Jay D White, William A. Joseph, 2019-08-08 This work provides a retrospective analysis of important events in China Taiwan and Hong Kong in the mid 1990s and a prospective look at some of the issues that will shape these areas as they each move toward decisive turning points in their distinct yet intertwined histories

Between Mecca and Beijing Maris Boyd Gillette, 2000 Between Mecca and Beijing examines how a community of urban Chinese Muslims uses consumption to position its members more favorably within the Chinese government's official paradigm for development Residents of the old Muslim district in the ancient Chinese capital of Xi'an belong to an official minority the Hui nationality that has been classified by the state as backward in comparison to China's majority Han population Though these Hui urbanites like the vast majority of Chinese citizens accept the assumptions about social evolution upon which such labels are based they actively reject the official characterization of themselves as less civilized and modern than the Han majority By selectively consuming goods and adopting fashions they regard as modern and non Chinese which include commodities and styles from both the West and the Muslim world these Chinese Muslims seek to demonstrate that they are capable of modernizing without the guidance or assistance of the state In so doing they challenge one of the fundamental roles the Chinese Communist government has claimed for itself that of guide and purveyor of modernity Through a detailed study of the daily life eating habits dress styles housing marriage and death rituals religious practices education family organization of the Hui inhabitants of Xi'an the author explores the effects of a state sponsored ideology of progress on an urban Chinese Muslim neighborhood
