Ac Grayling:

The Heart of Things A.C. Grayling, 2010-12-09 The new bestseller from one of Britain's most pre-eminent philosophers and arguably the best known A.C. Grayling. Everyone wishes to live a life that is satisfying and fulfilling in which there is achievement and pleasure and which has the respect of people one in turn respects. And one of the fundamentals to living such a life is to reflect on the choices we make. In this new collection A.C. Grayling invites the reader into a conversation with ideas. From personal questions about happiness and quality of life to wider public concerns such as war and democracy, these essays provide a springboard to thought and to exploring what is best about the human heart and mind. The Refutation of Scepticism A.C. Grayling, 1985 The Challenge of Things A.C. Grayling, 2015-12-08 A.C. Grayling's lucid and stimulating books based on the idea that philosophy should engage with the world and make itself useful invariably cause discussion. The Challenge of Things joins earlier collections such as The Reason of Things and Thinking of Answers collecting Grayling's recent writings on the world in a time of war and conflict. In describing and exposing the dark side of things, he also explores ways out of the habits and prejudices of mind that would otherwise trap us forever in the deadly impasses of conflicts of all kinds. Whether he is writing about the First World War and its legacy, free speech, the advantages of an atheist prime minister or the role of science in the arts, his essays are always enlightening, enlivening and hopeful. The Mystery of Things A.C. Grayling, 2010-12-09 Following the huge success of THE MEANING OF THINGS and THE REASON OF THINGS, a third collection of bestselling essays from Britain's top philosopher. Human genius has done much and promises much in the way of removing the mystery from many things in our world; at the same time it recognises and honours the mystery in things too. In this collection A.C. Grayling extends the range of his previous two books to show how much understanding people can gain about themselves and their world by reflecting on the lessons offered by science, the arts, including literature and history. Covering subjects as diverse as Jane Austen's EMMA, the Rosetta Stone, Shakespeare, the Holocaust, quantum physics, Galileo and even alien abductions, A.C. Grayling's latest collection is a rich source for reflection and contemplation over the mysteries of life. The Reason of Things A.C. Grayling, 2010-12-09 The follow-up to THE MEANING OF THINGS which continues A.C. Grayling's philosophical journey through life. The most important question we can ask ourselves is what kind of life is the best. This is the same as asking: How does one give meaning to one's life? How can one justify one's existence and make it worthwhile? How does one make experience valuable and keep growing and learning in the process and through this learning acquire a degree of understanding of oneself and the world? A civilised society is one which never ceases debating with itself about what human life should best be. Some would with justice say that if we want ours to be such a society, we must all contribute to that discussion. This book is, with appropriate diffidence, such a contribution. It consists of a collection of Grayling's regular Last Word columns in the Guardian. This time, topics include Suicide, Deceit, Luxury, Profit, Marriage, Meat eating, Liberty, Slavery, Protest, Guns and War. The Age of Genius A.C.
