Making Housing Happen, 2nd Edition Jill Suzanne Shook, 2012-09-19 The growing housing crisis cries out for solutions that work As many as 3 5 million Americans experience homelessness each year half of them women and children One in four renters spends more than half of their income on rent and utilities more than 30 percent is considered unaffordable With record foreclosures and 28 percent of homes underwater middle and low income homeowners are suffering Many congregations want to address this daunting problem yet feel powerless and uncertain about what to do The good news is that churches are effectively addressing the housing crisis from Washington State to New York City where an alliance of sixty churches has built five thousand homes for low income homeowners with virtually no government funding or foreclosures This book not only presents solid theological thinking about housing but also offers workable solutions to the current crisis true stories by those who have made housing happen Each story features a different Christian denomination geographic area and model adaptive reuse cohousing cooperative housing mixed income mixed use inclusionary zoning second units community land trusts sweat equity and more Making Housing Happen is about vision and faith relationships and persistence Its remarkable stories will inspire and challenge you to action This new edition includes significant new material especially in light of the ongoing mortgage crisis

L.C. Susan Daitch, 2002 Blending historical fiction with feminist and revolutionary politics Susan Daitch s first novel is a complex and unique look at the controversial nature of historical representations This story within a story within a story opens in 1968 with a preface to Dr Willa Rehnfield s translation of Lucienne Crozier s diary Although the authenticity of Lucienne s account is uncertain her diary attests to her involvement in the 1848 revolution in

Paris an illicit love affair and her eventual exile from France Midway through Rehnfield s translation a distinctly modern voice emerges from the footnotes These notes belong to Dr Rehnfield s literary executor Jane Amme a Berkeley radical on the run for her actions during the student riots of the 1960s who uncovered the translated diary and became intrigued with the parallels between Lucienne s depictions of revolution and her own experiences Dissatisfied with Dr Rehnfield s translation Jane defiantly rewrites the final outcome of Lucienne s story reclaiming this forgotten Frenchwoman as a prototype of the modern feminist
