European B2C E-Commerce in the Banking Sector Caroline Möckel, 2010-04-28 Inhaltsangabe Introduction Based on the findings of the correlation analysis described in chapter 7 1 factors of influence and variables statistically not related to financial B2C e commerce can now be distinguished While the focus of this part of the analysis lies on factors showing significant correlation coefficients in relation to the research topic this does not mean that the non correlated factors are not of importance or somewhat connected The statistical measurements may not be suitable for this type of analysis survey results may be misleading or the situation will have changed in the last two years after the investigation On the other hand the observed correlations do not necessarily equal a causal relationship and the high complex matter can not be explained by single variables as influence factors The conducted correlation analysis only serves as an indicator for potential influence factors or accelerators and has to be carefully evaluated Keeping these considerations in mind the statistical analysis within the scope of this masters dissertation will support the following conclusions and interpretations First of all computer usage and skills as well as internet usage and skills need to be on a high level in a country to facilitate financial B2C e commerce Residents of countries with higher levels for the subject of examination will probably already have gained adequate skills as indicated by a medium strong negative relation to computer courses taken in the last three months and other online activities such as online information search and online banking positively correlated While online banking is partially included in the variable e_comm representing financial B2C e commerce through customer s usage of online financial services this particular result may not be totally conclusive However it seems logical that consumers with good computer and internet skills also spending a lot of time with advanced activities on the internet may also engage in financial B2C e commerce This assumption narrows down the target group and excludes a certain clientele from online product offers of financial institutions banks will need to adapt their web portals accordingly set up initiatives improving computer and web skills of their consumers and meet their consumers on the internet e g with advertising while they are using search engines Practical evidence supporting these interpretations can be found in several examples of Financial institutions directory American Bankers Association,2000-12-02 E-Banking and Emerging Multidisciplinary Processes: Social, Economical and Organizational Models Sarlak, Mohammad Ali,Hastiani, Asghar Abolhasani,2010-08-31 E Banking and Emerging Multidisciplinary Processes Social Economical and Organizational Models advances the knowledge and practice of all facets of electronic banking This cutting edge publication emphasizes emerging e banking theories technologies strategies and challenges to stimulate and disseminate information to research business and banking communities It develops a comprehensive framework for e banking through a multidisciplinary approach while taking into account the implications it has on traditional banks businesses and economies Pathfinder NDA/NA National Defence Academy & Naval Academy Entrance Examination Arihant Experts,2021-12-15 1 Pathfinder NDA NA Entrance Examination prescribed under UPSC Guidelines 2 The Self Study Guide divides the entire syllabus in 4 Major Sections 3 Provides 5 Previous Years Solved Papers for practice 4 More than 8000 MCQs for quick revision of topics 5 Chapterwise division of Previous Years Questions 6 Gives deep insight of the paper pattern its types and weightage in the exam Mark Twain once said Patriotism is supporting your country all time and government when it deserves it The Union services commission or UPSC has released the notification of about 413 seats for the NDA NA exam 2022 Here comes the updated edition of the Pathfinder series NDA NA Entrance Examination comprehensively complete syllabus of entrance examination as prescribed by UPSC The book has been divided into chapters that are categorized under 4 major subjects Mathematics General English General Science General Studies providing a
