Foundation for Aviation and Sustainable Tourism

Aviation And Tourism:

Aviation and Tourism Dr Andreas Papatheodorou, Professor Peter Forsyth, Dr Anne Graham, 2012-10-01 This book deals exclusively with issues related to the relationship between aviation and leisure travel. It does this with an analysis of the theoretical concepts relevant to the subject area combined with a detailed investigation of current practice within the aviation and tourism industries. Each chapter is illustrated with case study material that will reinforce the understanding of the issues that are being examined.

Aviation and Tourism Policies Stephen Wheatcroft, World Tourism Organization, 1994 Aviation and tourism have long been seen as interdependent segments of one single industry. Increasingly the World Tourism Organization and its member governments recognise that developments in aviation will significantly affect the nature and growth of tourism. Aviation and Tourism Policies makes an important contribution to the growing worldwide debate on aviation and tourism policy issues. This publication reviews recent developments in aviation such as changes in air transport regulation and examines the rationale behind the various controls imposed on air services and the reasons for the current radical transformation of the industry throughout the world.

Airport Marketing Strategies Lázaro Florido-Benítez, 2024-10-24 Strategies Aviation and Tourism Perspectives offers a contemporary global vision of airport marketing strategies in the context of the aviation and tourism sectors.

Digital Transformation in Aviation, Tourism and Hospitality in Southeast Asia Azizul Hassan, Nor Aida Abdul Rahman, 2022-11-17 Technological advances and the drive to digitalize business processes in aviation, tourism and hospitality have forced the industries to go along with the digital movement. The results are often mixed. This book brings together contributions from leading scholars in the field and explores the digital transformation in these industries in Southeast Asia. The book looks at the impact of digital transformation on the region and the issues and challenges brought about by this transformation. It also addresses trends in the industries from blockchain technology, AI, biometric and mobile technology applications to in-flight catering. It examines the impact of COVID-19 on the industries and how the pandemic has led to businesses adopting new business models. Through the case studies of digital adoptions in the region, readers will gain insights on how the countries have leveraged new technologies and the implementation processes to drive digital transformation. The book aims to help scholars and policy makers understand the digital advances in the industries to better formulate responses in research and policy making and deliver effective digital transformation.
