Journey to Love Janeen Michael-Lanier,2009-04 Abused The Preacher s Wife Divorced These were not my character traits or career choice yet these associations and marks on my life gave me my public identity This identity s influence was so strong it broke my personal courage Could I break the silence and confess my pain to God Would He hear

my prayers and heal me if I walked away from ministry Would He discard me if I got a divorce After taking an honest look at my life I truly wondered if He even loved me at all For years I lived with the disconnection between the truth of God s Word which proclaimed His Love for me and my ability to dwell daily in the confident security that truth inspires The distress in my heart was so great and securing God s love seemed so elusive that I made attempts to cure myself Unfortunately I wound up causing myself greater injury as I sought out alternatives that I could intellectually grasp and measure up to Each substitute for His love that I gathered failed me miserably til finally I answered God s question to me Janeen will you let me love you After many hills valleys scrapes and falls I placed my hand in His and made the discovery of a lifetime He created me to Love me I didn t have to beg barter or steal for love The Love that I so desperately longed for was inside of me All I had to do was accept and receive the awesome gift But the twists and turns of the pathways travelled to arrive at the place of clarity and wholeness was an absolutely incredible Journey to Love I am so glad that God is Love He miraculously loves me and you in the midst of and through each of our life s pathways

Mad Studies Reader Bradley Lewis, Alisha Ali, Jazmine Russell, 2024-09-30 The last few years have brought increased writings from activists artists scholars and concerned clinicians that cast a critical and constructive eye on psychiatry mental health care and the cultural relations of mental difference With particular focus on accounts of lived experience and readings that cover issues of epistemic and social injustice in mental health discourse the Mad Studies Reader brings together voices that advance anti sanist approaches to scholarship practice art and activism in this realm Beyond offering a theoretical and historical overview of mad studies this Reader draws on the perspectives voices and experiences of artists mad pride activists humanities and social science scholars and critical clinicians to explore the complexity of mental life and mental difference Voices from these groups confront and challenge standard approaches to mental difference They advance new structures of meaning and practice that are inclusive of those who have been systematically subjugated and promote anti sanist approaches to counter inequalities prejudices and discrimination Confronting modes of psychological oppression and the power of a few to interpret and define difference for so many the Mad Studies Reader asks the critical question of how these approaches may be reconsidered resisted and reclaimed This collection will be of interest to mental health clinicians students and scholars of the arts humanities and social sciences and anyone who has been affected by mental difference directly or indirectly who is curious to explore new perspectives
