B-17 Flying Fortress in Combat Over Europe Tomasz Szlagor, 2013 The B 17 Flying Fortress epitomized the American airpower for most of the Second World War It was by far the most effective weapon to carry out the strategic daylight bombing campaign in Europe The battles fought by B 17 crews during raids on such tough targets as Schweinfurt Berlin or Ploesti were nothing short of epic The combined effort of the two US Army Air Forces 8th and 15th stationed in England and Italy respectively eventually denied the enemy the means to wage war and sealed the fate of the European Axis powers and their allies The Last Mission of Lady Jane II Lisa A. Vans, 2023-02-28 Further insight into the experience for 8th Air Force bomber crews over Germany and in German captivity New revelations about the investigation of the murder of several American bomber crewmen by German civilians Learn personal stories about the crewmen of Lady Jane II including the postwar struggles of the survivors Medical Support of the Army Air Forces in World War II Mae Mills Link, Hubert A. Coleman, Hubert Anderson Coleman, United States. Department of the Air Force. Office of the Surgeon General, 1992

Belle of the Brawl Gary A Best, 2011-11-30 This wartime biography follows the life of a Second World War B 17 bombardier from the beginning of the war to its conclusion Based on the 150 letters the airman Fred Lull wrote home to his mother much of the horrors of what he experienced off the wing of his plane aircraft destroyed dismemberment by flak go unshared Fred did not want his mother to worry and could not tell her I noticed some movement and a flash of light out of the corner of my right eye The plane that had been flying right next to us had exploded and simply disappeared Using the bombardier s combat flight record research data and interviews of former B 17 crew members the story unfolds breaking through the barrier of an unwillingness and inability to tell loved ones of the smell and taste of war Air Force Magazine, 1986 Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1999 Bomb Group Paul Bingley, Mike Peters, 2022-11-03

The authors do a good job using the diaries interviews and books written by group members to convey a vivid sometimes too vivid picture of war at its most elemental The Journal of the Air Force Historical Foundation In February 1942 a reconnaissance party of United States Army Air Force officers arrived in England Firmly wedded to the doctrine of daylight precision bombing they believed they could help turn the tide of the war in Europe In the months that followed they formed the Eighth Air Force an organization that grew at an astonishing rate To accommodate it almost seventy airfields were hastily built across the eastern counties of England At the heart of the Eighth Air Force was its bombardment groups each equipped with scores of heavily armed four engine bombers These Boeing B 17 Flying Fortresses and Consolidated B 24 Liberators were soon punching through the enemy s defenses to bomb targets vital to its war effort They were crewed by thousands of young American airmen most of whom were volunteers This book tells the story of just one Bomb Group the 381st which crossed the Atlantic in May 1943 Arriving at RAF Ridgewell on the Essex Suffolk border its airmen quickly found themselves thrown into the hazardous and attritional air battle raging in the skies over Europe The 381st s path led from its formation in the Texan desert to its 297th and final bombing mission deep into the heart of Hitler's Third Reich. This is the remarkable story of one group and the part it played in the strategic bombing campaign of The Mighty Eighth. Harrisburg in World War II Rodney Ross, 2021. As the nation entered into the throes of World War II, Harrisburg was prepared to answer the call of service. Proudful as a beehive of industry, the city was a hub for wartime manufacturing, railroads, and distribution. Bond drives attracted celebrities such as Abbott and Costello as locals enjoyed Coffee MacArthur and Doughnuts Doolittle for breakfast. Market Square's Caplan's collected empty toothpaste and shaving cream containers in rationing efforts. The local Pabst Blue Ribbon plant stopped canning, and the Harrisburg Coca-Cola Bottling Works ran out of sugar as everyday products became rare luxuries. Nearly 540 area service members lost their lives in the war, leaving Harrisburg to honor their legacy for generations. Author Rodney Ross reveals the trials of life on the homefront in Harrisburg during World War II. Bulletin of the Evanston Public Library Evanston Public Library, 1916. Air Force and Space Digest, 1960.
