Babel 17:

Babel Seventeen Samuel R. Delany, 2001 Babel-17 Samuel R. Delany, 1999 In the far future after human civilization has spread through the galaxy communications begin to arrive in an apparently alien language They appear to threaten invasion but in order to counter the threat the messages must first be understood Babel-17/Empire Star Samuel R. Delany, 2002-01-08 Author of the bestselling Dhalgren and winner of four Nebulas and one Hugo Samuel R Delany is one of the most acclaimed writers of speculative fiction Babel 17 winner of the Nebula Award for best novel of the year is a fascinating tale of a famous poet bent on deciphering a secret language that is the key to the enemy's deadly force a task that requires she travel with a splendidly improbable crew to the site of the next attack For the first time Babel 17 is published as the author intended with the short novel Empire Star the tale of Comet Jo a simple minded teen thrust into a complex galaxy when he's entrusted to carry a vital message to a distant world Spellbinding and smart both novels are testimony to Delany's vast and singular talent The Delany Intersection George Edgar Slusser, 1977-01-01 George Edgar Slusser discusses author Samuel R Delany's work from his first paperbacks to his latest success Triton Ash of stars , A critical appreciation of the acclaimed science fiction writer and his works Ideal Minds Michael Trask, 2020-11-15 Following the 1960s that decade's focus on consciousness raising transformed into an array of intellectual projects far afield of movement politics The mind's powers came to preoccupy a range of thinkers and writers ethicists pursuing contractual theories of justice radical ecologists interested in the paleolithic brain seventies cultists and the devout of both evangelical and New Age persuasions In Ideal Minds Michael Trask presents a boldly revisionist argument about the revival of subjectivity in postmodern American culture connecting familiar figures within the seventies intellectual landscape who share a commitment to what he calls neo idealism as a weapon in the struggle against discredited materialist and behaviorist worldviews In a heterodox intellectual and literary history of the 1970s Ideal Minds mixes ideas from cognitive science philosophy of mind moral philosophy deep ecology political theory science fiction neoclassical economics and the sociology of religion Trask also delves into the decade's more esoteric branches of learning including Scientology anarchist theory rapture prophecies psychic channeling and neo Malthusianism Through this investigation Trask argues that a dramatic inflation in the value of consciousness and autonomy beginning in the 1970s accompanied a growing argument about the state's inability to safeguard such values Ultimately the thinkers Trask analyzes John Rawls Arne Naess L Ron Hubbard Hal Lindsey Philip Dick Ursula Le Guin Edward Abbey William Burroughs John Irving and James Merrill found alternatives to statism in conditions that would lend intellectual support to the consolidation of these concepts in the radical free market ideologies of the 1980s Voices for the Future Thomas D. Clareson, 1984 Across the Lines Michael Cronin, 2000 Across the Lines is a study of how language mediates experience across cultures with regard to travel The study is partly based on the books of various travel writers with no grasp of a foreign tongue their perceptions using interpreters guides

Science Fiction Language in Action Jennifer Kelso Farrell, 2025-09-04 In this book Jennifer Kelso Farrell investigates the way in which L Ron Hubbard used his background in science fiction to create a language for his religion that served to gatekeep outsiders out and insulate insiders Examining the works of science fiction authors such as George Orwell Aldous Huxley Anthony Burgess and Samuel Delany Farrell explores the relationship between language and reality and the role language can play in reprogramming individuals The author also draws upon high profile biographies from former members such as Troublemaker Surviving Hollywood and Scientology and My Billion Year Contract to display how indoctrination into such language often causes a language barrier between those within Scientology and those outside of it thus further isolating members and perpetuating Scientologese within their inner circle Bridging the gap between fiction and reality Farrell illustrates how this language came to be and how it continues to persist today

Futurescapes Ralph Pordzik, 2009 This book testifies to the growing interest in the many spaces of utopia It intends to map out on utopian and science fiction discourses some of the new and revisionist models of spatial analysis applied in Literary and Cultural Studies in recent years The aim of the volume is to side step the established generic binary of utopia and dystopia or science fiction and thus to open the analysis of utopian literature to new lines of inquiry The essays collected here propose to think of utopias not so much as fictional texts about future change and transformation but as vital elements in a cultural process through which social spatial and subjective identities are formed Utopias can thus be read as textual systems implying a distinct spatial and temporal dimension as spatial practices that tend to naturalize a cultural and social construction that of the good life the radically improved welfare state the Christian paradise the counter society etc and make that representation operational by interpellating their readers in some determinate relation to their givenness as sites of political and individual improvement This volume is of interest for all scholars and students of literature who wish to explore the ways in which utopias of the past and recent present have circulated as media of cultural exchange and homogenization as sites of cultural and linguistic appropriation and as foci for the spatial formation of national and regional identities in the English speaking world
