highlights novel and pragmatic health promotion efforts being adopted with boys and young men of colour BYMOC globally that apply a strengths based approach Men s adoption of risky health practices and reluctance to seek help and engage in preventive health behaviours have frequently been used to explain their poorer health outcomes particularly among adolescent boys and young men and disproportionately affecting BYMOC Emerging literature on equity and men s health has conveyed that intersections among age race sexuality socioeconomic status and geography contribute to a complex array of health and social inequities There is growing evidence to suggest these inequities shape the health practices of BYMOC Unfortunately these health and social inequities can have negative lifelong consequences An increased focus on reducing health inequities has led to a greater focus on health promotion actions that address social and cultural determinants of health The vulnerabilities that BYMOC face are diverse and are reflected in a range of tailored health promotion interventions Health promotion approaches that influence structural and systemic inequities experienced by BYMOC have been a prominent feature In this volume the editors and contributors purposefully bring together international research and promising practice examples from Australia the United States New Zealand and Canada to celebrate health promotion strategies that help to improve the health and social trajectories of BYMOC In doing so the book moves beyond discussing the health inequities faced by this population to talk about the practical actions to address them in context Health Promotion with Adolescent Boys and Young Men of Colour brings together diffuse strands of scholarship relating to male health promotion gender masculinities and health equity and men s health and gender and youth development The book is a unique and useful resource for practitioners policy makers researchers and students with an interest in health promotion public health social work social policy education men s health youth development Indigenous studies and health and social equity

Colour and Culture in South Africa Sheila Patterson, 2013-08-21 This is Volume VI of twenty one in a series on Race Class and Social Structure Originally published in 1953 and using language of the time this is a study of the status of the Cape coloured people within the social structure of the Union of South Africa Colour in Art John Gage, Kelly Grovier, 2023-09-07 The complex phenomenon of colour has received detailed attention from the perspectives of physics chemistry physiology psychology linguistics and philosophy However the people who work most closely with colour artists have rarely been canvassed for their opinions on this mysterious subject John Gage sets out to address this omission by focusing on the thoughts and practices of artists Colour in Art is concerned with the history of colour but is not itself a history instead each chapter develops a theme from a different scientific discipline as seen from the viewpoint of such diverse artists such as Wassily Kandinsky Vincent van Gogh Sonia Delaunay Bridget Riley and Clifford Possum Tjapaltjarri Drawing on examples through the ages from ancient times to the present the many topics covered include flags synaesthesia Theosophy theatre design film chromotherapy and chromophobia Featuring a new foreword by art writer Kelly Grovier outlining contemporary developments in the study of colour and an updated bibliography this new edition of this classic text offers a wide ranging and engaging introduction to the place and power of colour in life and art Different Cultures, Mixing Colours Valerie Walton, 2014-10-29 The objective of our design is to help people from other cultures to accept our culture and let them know there s nothing to be afraid because beauty also comes from within aboriginal people Most importantly this is our way of telling aboriginal children to have pride in themselves and their culture no matter what and to hang on to the pride they were born with We believe this is one step toward reconciliation
