Traveling Heritages Saskia Wieringa, 2008 In the context of our increasingly globalized and digitalized world libraries and archives are experiencing major changes The methods used internationally to collect cultural heritage and other historical material are shifting as new media have added important innovative tools for gathering preserving and sharing information around the globe In light of our increasingly multicultural societies and the expanding digital divide we need new and more inclusive approaches to the collection of cultural heritage This means that critical reflection on both the contents of collections and methods of acquisition is crucial The International Information Center and Archives for the Women's Movement IIAV in Amsterdam provides a case study in how to approach these issues It considered such questions as how to make optimal use of new media and whose histories should be represented in its archives In Traveling Heritages international and national heritage experts from academic library and archival professions reflect upon these questions offering new perspectives on documenting women's histories

Drums for the Absolute Beginner Pete Sweeney, 2004-08 This book teaches the complete novice everything they need to know to start playing drums right away The music lover who has never even sat behind a drum will be playing drum beats and rolls immediately learning everything from how to buy a drumset hold the sticks and make a good stroke to playing basic beats and fills on the drumset

Casanova Was A Book Lover John Maxwell Hamilton, 2000-04 Everyone knows which books people buy they can just look at the best seller lists But who knows which books people steal Who for that matter knows that authors ruin the book market by writing too much Or why book critics are not critical Or why librarians need to throw out more books Who indeed knows the answer to that all important question in our democracy should presidents and presidential candidates write books The answer is no In this irreverent analysis of the book industry John Maxwell Hamilton a longtime journalist and public radio commentator answers these questions and many more proving that the best way to study books is not to take them too seriously He provides a rich history of the book from the days when monks laboriously hand copied texts to the tidal wave of Titanic tie ins and gives a succinct overview of the state of the industry today including writing marketing promoting reviewing ghostwriting and collecting Throughout Hamilton peppers his prose with spicy tidbits of information that will fascinate bibliophiles everywhere For instance did you know that Walt Whitman was fired from a government job because his boss found Leaves of Grass and its author immoral Or that the most stolen book in the United States is the Bible followed by The Joy of Sex How about that Dan Quayle's 1989 Christmas card read May our nation continue to be a beacon of hope to the world Or that Casanova was an ardent lover of books as well as women Hamilton offers an inside look at the history and business of book reviewing explaining why more often than not reviewers resemble counselors at a self esteem camp and examining the enormous impact of the Oprah effect on the market As the self appointed Emily Post of the book world he advises publishers authors and readers on proper etiquette for everything from book parties Feel free to build a party around a theme in a book no matter how tacky and jacket
