Beautiful Template Liberty Parker , Rainey When I was growing up I never knew meanness I thought the world went around on love and security Now that I m older I m learning how very wrong I was I ve fallen in love with two men two brothers who have come to mean the world to me I live life to the fullest because they are an integral part of my mornings days and nights But I Rainey Masters am being taught a very hard lesson in life one that I wouldn t wish on my worst enemy I am being bullied and harassed for allowing myself happiness I try to stay positive I try to keep putting one foot in front of the other but nothing I do makes them stop and leave me alone Carson I m part of the Rage Ryders MC I used to live breath and fuck my days away A decision I will come to regret in time One look at her and I was a goner Love at first sight doesn t exist my ass she s been mine from the moment our eyes met at the Diva s Ink House We ve had a rough go of things from the beginning dealing with a stalker and a psychopath things were supposed to be easy from here but they re not Someone is after my girl and I will stop at nothing until that threat has been eliminated no matter the cost Levi The day I put on my prospect patch was the happiest day in my life until I met her My ray of sunshine my light at the end of a very dark tunnel She became all I could see my world my every damn thing We d get over one hurdle just to have another come up and rear its ugly head No one will threaten my girl and live long enough to talk about it I will take them down one notch at a time one pound of flesh at a time and I will carve their pathetic hearts from their body while it still beats begging for its life force to continue I am Levi James I am a Rage Ryder and I am

Rainey Masters man Planning for Offsite Airport Terminals Matthew A. Coogan,2010 At head of title Airport Cooperative Research Program Smart Mobility - Connecting Everyone Barbara Flügge,2017-04-03 This book presents a comprehensive overview of various aspects of mobility and transportation to be smart and seamless It provides basic principles and trends of smart mobility as well as international examples The topic of this work is especially interesting as the future of human centered and business triggered ecosystems is increasingly dependent on the coordination capabilities of all participating and influencing members to manage transportation needs Even more the fulfillment of the right to mobility for individual and cargo related mobility asks for mobility enablement in a predictive digital and intermodal manner Therefore this book is useful not only for decision makers in several positions but also for people who are interested in trends of transportation and mobility Making Paper Cranes Mihee Kim-Kort,2012-12-15 This is not your typical Asian instructional book on Asian crafting or origami Making Paper Cranes is an attempt to describe an ever emerging life in an emerging community within Christianity in North America that is intentionally taking flight and impacting the world This theological book engages the social histories literary texts and narratives of Asian American women as well as the theological projects of prominent Asian American feminist theologians It seeks to offer another liberative theological voice Inherent in its construction is the interconnectedness of all stories that articulate struggle resistance and the artistic flourishing of oppressed peoples Simply put Making Paper Cranes is about Asian American mothers daughters sisters and women who are imaginatively and courageously crafting their journeys together in and through their Christian faith Hollywood's Imperial Wars Armando José Prats,2024-04-16 When the Vietnam War punctured the myth of American military invincibility Hollywood needed a new kind of war movie The familiar triumphal narrative was relegated to history and with it the heroic legacy that had passed from one generation to the next for more than two hundred years How Hollywood helped create and instill the American myth of heroic continuity and how films revised that myth after the Vietnam War is what Armando Jos Prats explores in Hollywood s Imperial Wars The book offers a new way of understanding the cultural and historical significance of Vietnam in relation to Hollywood s earlier representations of Americans at war from the mythic heroism of a film like Sands of Iwo Jima to the rupture of that myth in films such as The Deer Hunter Apocalypse Now and Platoon As early as the mid 1940s Prats suggests fears aroused by the Cold War were stirring anxieties about sustaining the heroic myth anxieties reflected in the insistent aggressive patriotism in films of the period In this context Prats considers the immeasurable cultural importance of John Wayne the cinematic apotheosis of wartime valor and righteousness whose patriotism was nonetheless deeply compromised by his not having served in World War II Prats reveals how historical and cultural anxieties emerge in well known Vietnam movies in which characters inspired by the heroes of the Second World War are denied the heroic legacy of their fathers American war movies in Prats s analysis were forever altered by the loss in Vietnam Even movies like American Sniper that exalt war heroes are marked as much by the failure of the heroic tropes of old Hollywood war movies as by the tragic turn of actual historical events Tracing what Prats calls the anxiety of legacy through the films of the World War II and post Vietnam War periods this book offers a new way of looking at both the Hollywood war movie and the profound cultural shifts it reflects and refracts Planes, Canes, and Automobiles Valerie M. Grubb, 2015-10-06 If the thought of vacationing with your parents makes you cringe fear no more Help is here Planes Canes and Automobiles Connecting with Your Aging Parents through Travel is a gold mine of practical advice funny anecdotes and tales of triumphs and travails from Val Grubb who has traveled more than 300 000 miles and counting with her 84 year old mother over the past twenty years When planning a recent trip overseas however Grubb realized that her mom s physical and mental capabilities had suddenly changed Her mom now needed a wheelchair for example and was afraid to travel alone even on short flights to meet her daughter for a long trip together Grubb set out to find suggestions for handling these changes and after much research was struck by the lack of resources to help people plan vacations with an aging friend or family member She couldn t find any comprehensive information that shed light on the nuances of globetrotting with aging parents

Transforming Urban Transport Diane E. Davis, Alan A. Altshuler, 2019 Transforming Urban Transport brings into focus the origins and implementation pathways of significant urban transport innovations that have recently been adopted in major democratically governed world cities that are seeking to advance sustainability aims It documents how proponents of new transportation initiatives confronted a range of administrative environmental fiscal and political obstacles by using a range of leadership skills technical resources and negotiation capacities to move a good idea from the drawing board to implementation The book s eight case studies focus on cities of great interest across the globe Los Angeles Mexico City New York Paris San Francisco Seoul Stockholm and Vienna many of which are known for significant mayor leadership and efforts to rescale power from the nation to the city The cases highlight innovations likely to be of interest to transport policy makers from all corners such as strengthening public transportation services vehicle and traffic management measures repurposing roads and other urban spaces away from their initial function as vehicle travel corridors and turning sidewalks and city streets into more pedestrian friendly places for walking cycling and leisure Aside from their transformative impacts in transportation terms many of the policy innovations examined here have altered planning institutions public private sector relations civil society commitments and governance mandates in the course of implementation In bringing these cases to the fore Transforming Urban Transport advances understanding of the conditions under which policy interventions can expand institutional capacities and governance mandates particularly linked to urban sustainability As such it is an essential contribution to larger debates about what it takes to make cities more environmentally sustainable and the types of strategies and tactics that best advance progress on these fronts in both the short and the long term

Globalization and Papua New Guinea: Ancient Wilderness, Paradise, Introduced Terror and Hell Falk Huettmann, 2023-04-26 This book aims to present a reality view for Papua New Guinea based on many years of first hand field work and research accounts It further assesses sustainability in the light of 47 000 years of a self sustained type of civilization without bad global impacts This book contrasts the modern sustainable development failures from the colonial times onwards as promoted by the western world namely Australia the UK EU and the U S as well as Japan and now China in times of globalization Trumpism and royal governance Papua New Guinea is still part of the British Dominion and of the Antarctic Treaty etc This assessment and book is the first of its kind also employing modern data analysis Landscape Ecology principles patterns and processes telecoupling and Geographic Information Systems GIS with Open Access data focusing on ecological economics marxism socialism and contrasting it with current capitalism and neoliberalism that Papua New Guinea is fully exposed to Throughout the 31 book chapters various aspects are covered how a further insistence on the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and so called Development Aid will result in unwanted side effects and perverse outcomes for Papua New Guinea and for the world in times of wider global change and unprecedented man made crisis
