Sight Tyler Carrington, 2019 Framed by the life murder and sensational trial over an enterprising seamstress Love at Last Sight tells a history of dating in Berlin where the romantic technologies and opportunities of the turn of the century city such as missed connections and newspaper personal ads offered men and women on the margins the best shot at finding love but exposed them to tremendous risk. Inequalities and the Paradigm of Excellence in Academia Fiona Jenkins, Barbara Hoenig, Susanne Maria Weber, Andrea Wolfram, 2022-06-30

This volume examines the criteria of excellence producing inequalities of gender in the daily working environment and evaluation of academics. Policymakers have increasingly placed emphasis on gender equality as part of a strategy for achieving research excellence and efforts to reduce gender bias have become mainstream. This book suggests that this goal has remained elusive in practice due to continuing underrepresentation of women across many academic and scientific fields. Questioning the old structures of male dominance still prevalent in national research policy, the book explores the effects of institutional values and practices on the careers of academics, particularly the academic identities of women and their career developments. It focuses on case studies drawn from Europe while also highlighting the rise of new forms of public management and a neoliberal framing of the value of academic work that have a much broader global reach. Using participatory research, the book analyses contemporary forms of gendered excellence in an intersectional and international perspective. It will be of interest to junior senior researchers, teachers and scholars in sociology, education, gender studies, history, political science and science and technology studies.
