Albanian Literature A Short History:

Albanian Literature Robert Elsie, 2005-07-29 The tender plant of Albanian literature grew in a rocky soil It was late to evolve and its development indeed its very existence was threatened in many periods Albanian Literature A Short History tells the story of the survival and growth of Albanian creative writing beginning with the earliest thirteenth century texts of Theodor of Shkodra tracing the development of the modern literature of Buzuku Budi and Bogdani the incorporation of the Muslim influences of Frakulla and Kycyku and continuing with the works of Cajupi and Kadare during the reign of King Zog and the Hoxha administration A unique book that illuminates an under researched subject Albanian Literature is an essential reference guide for all those interested in Balkan cultures in comparative literature and in European cultural history in general

Albanian Literature Robert Elsie, 1993 Historical Dictionary of Albania Robert Elsie, 2010-03-19 Albania is not well known by outsiders it was deliberately closed to the outside world during the communist era Now it has thankfully become free again its borders are open and it can be visited and it is increasingly integrating with the rest of Europe and beyond Unfortunately Albania has had its share of problems in the post communist era it is a land of destitution and despair thanks in part to the Albanian mafia which has turned the country into one of blood feuds kalashnikovs and eternal crises Yet Albania is in essence a European nation like any other and will soon it is to be hoped advance and take its proper place in Europe and the world The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Albania relates the history of this little known country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography appendixes and over 700 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope, John Neubauer, 2007-07-18 The third volume in the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe focuses on the making and remaking of those institutional structures that engender and regulate the creation distribution and reception of literature The focus here is not so much on shared institutions but rather on such region wide analogous institutional processes as the national awakening the modernist opening and the communist regimentation the canonization of texts and censorship of literature These processes which took place in all of the region's cultures were often asynchronous and subjected to different local conditions The volume's premise is that the national awakening and institutionalization of literature were symbiotically interrelated in East Central Europe Each national awakening involves a language renewal an introduction of the vernacular and its literature in schools and universities the creation of an infrastructure for the publication of books and journals clashes with censorship the founding of national academies libraries and theaters a reconstruction of national folklore and the writing of histories of the vernacular literature The four parts of this volume are titled 1 Publishing and Censorship 2 Theater as a Literary Institution 3 Forging Primal Pasts The Uses of Folk Poetry and 4 Literary Histories Itineraries of National Self images

Britain, the Albanian National Question and the Fall of the Ottoman Empire, 1876-1914 Daut

Dauti,2023-09-21 All too often Albania has been considered a relatively minor player in late 19th and early 20th century history By contrast this book highlights the significance of this nation and the Albanian question at this time through a detailed analysis of the relationship between Albania Britain and the Ottoman Empire from 1876 to 1914 Making use of a wide range of archival source materials some of which are published here in English for the first time this book explores British foreign policy towards the development of the Albanian national movement and parallel demise of the Ottoman Empire In doing so it illuminates the objectives of the British government as well as shining a spotlight on the public opinion of both the British people towards Albanian nationalism and on the reaction of the Albanians towards the British diplomatic position By looking through such a unique lens here Daut Dauti is able to provide fresh insight into why the Albanians were not supported by the Great Powers in their national quest in the way that other Balkan countries were and draws significant new conclusions on British Balkan and Ottoman relations As such this nuanced study is vital reading for all scholars interested in modern Albanian history turn of the century British international relations and the fall of the Ottoman Empire more broadly The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Stephen Cushman,Clare Cavanagh,Jahan Ramazani,Paul Rouzer,2012-08-26 The most important poetry reference for more than four decades now fully updated for the twenty first century Through three editions over more than four decades The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics has built an unrivaled reputation as the most comprehensive and authoritative reference for students scholars and poets on all aspects of its subject history movements genres prosody rhetorical devices critical terms and more Now this landmark work has been thoroughly revised and updated for the twenty first century Compiled by an entirely new team of editors the fourth edition the first new edition in almost twenty years reflects recent changes in literary and cultural studies providing up to date coverage and giving greater attention to the international aspects of poetry all while preserving the best of the previous volumes At well over a million words and more than 1 000 entries the Encyclopedia has unparalleled breadth and depth Entries range in length from brief paragraphs to major essays of 15 000 words offering a more thorough treatment including expert synthesis and indispensable bibliographies than conventional handbooks or dictionaries This is a book that no reader or writer of poetry will want to be without Thoroughly revised and updated by a new editorial team for twenty first century students scholars and poets More than 250 new entries cover recent terms movements and related topics Broader international coverage includes articles on the poetries of more than 110 nations regions and languages Expanded coverage of poetries of the non Western and developing worlds Updated bibliographies and cross references New easier to use page design Fully indexed for the first time History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe: Types and stereotypes Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2004 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800 1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East

Central Europe approaches the region's literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature's participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region's literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region

Kosovo, A Documentary History Robert Elsie, Bejtullah D. Destani, 2018-01-30 The question of Kosovan sovereignty and independence has a history which stretches far back beyond the outbreak of war in 1998 This volume is a compilation of key documents on Kosovo from the first half of the twentieth century These texts including numerous diplomatic despatches from the British Foreign Office deal initially with the Albanian uprising against Ottoman rule in the spring of 1912 and in particular with the period of the Serbian invasion of Kosovo in late 1912 and the repercussions of the conquest for the Albanian population The documents from 1918 to the early 1920s focus mainly on endeavours by Albanian leaders including those of the so called Kosovo Committee in exile to bring the plight of their people to the attention of the outside world endeavours which largely failed Further documents reflect the situation in Kosovo up to the outbreak of World War II This collection provides new perspectives on the Kosovo question and includes many documents which have been largely unavailable up to now It sheds new light on many of the major and minor episodes that channelled and determined subsequent events including the Kosovo War of 1998 1999 and the declaration of independence in February 2008

The Walls Behind the Curtain Harold B. Segel, 2012-11-11 Because of their visibility in society and ability to shape public opinion prominent literary figures were among the first targets of Communist repression torture and incarceration Authors such as Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn famously documented the experience of internment in Soviet gulags Little however has been published in the English language on the work of writers imprisoned by other countries of the Soviet bloc For the first time The Walls Behind the Curtain presents a collection of works from East European novelists poets playwrights and essayists who wrote during or after their captivity under communism Harold B. Segel paints a backdrop of the political culture and prison and labor camp systems of each country detailing the onerous conditions that writers faced Segel then offers biographical information on each writer and presents excerpts of their writing Notable literary figures included are Vaclav Havel Eva Kanturkova Milan Simecka Adam Michnik Milovan Djilas Paul Goma

Tibor Dery and Visar Zhiti as well as many other writers This anthology recovers many of the most important yet overlooked literary voices from the era of Communist occupation Although translated from numerous languages and across varied cultures there is a distinct commonality in the experiences documented by these works The Walls Behind the Curtain serves as a testament to the perseverance of the human spirit and a quest for individual liberty that many writers forfeited their lives for

Historical Dictionary of Kosovo Robert Elsie, 2010-11-15 As the seventh and probably last state to arise from the ruins of the former Yugoslavia Kosovo is the newest country in Europe For centuries Kosovo also known as Kosova was part of the Ottoman Empire and for most of the 20th century it was a province of what was once Yugoslavia After the military conflict in 1998 1999 and a period of administration by the United Nations Kosovo declared its independence from Serbia on February 17 2008 Focusing not only on Kosovo s turbulent recent years the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Kosovo also relates the country s rich culture and long history This is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kosovo
